In the Matter of:

BILLY MARTIN,

Petitioner.

24-VH-0312-AG-201
(Claim No. 721021279)

August 19, 2025

DECISION AND ORDER

On July 5, 2024, Billy Martin (“Petitioner”) filed a Hearing Request (“Request”) seeking a hearing concerning the amount, enforceability, or payment schedule of a debt allegedly owed to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (“HUD” or “the Secretary”). The Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996, as amended (31 U.S.C. § 3720D), authorizes federal agencies to use administrative wage garnishments as a mechanism for the collection of debts allegedly owed to the United States government.

The Secretary of HUD has designated the judges of the Office of Hearings and Appeals to adjudicate contested cases where the Secretary seeks to collect debts by means of administrative wage garnishment. This hearing is conducted in accordance with procedures set forth at 31 C.F.R. § 285.11, as authorized by 24 C.F.R. § 17.81.

FINDINGS OF FACT

On December 15, 2021, Petitioner executed a Partial Claims Promissory Note (“the Note”) in favor of the Secretary in the principal amount of $25,673.86. The funds secured by the Note were paid by the Secretary to Petitioner’s primary mortgage lender to provide foreclosure relief.

The terms of the Note included Petitioner’s promise to pay, secured by a mortgage, deed of trust, or similar security instrument to protect the Secretary from losses if Petitioner defaulted on the Note. The Note required payment on or before September 1, 2046, or when the first of the following events occurs:

- i. Borrower has paid in full all amounts due under the primary Note and related mortgage, deed of trust, or similar security instruments insured by the Secretary, or;
- ii. the maturity date of the primary Note has been accelerated, or;
- iii. the primary Note and related mortgage, deed of trust, or similar security instrument are no longer insured by the Secretary, or;

- iv. the property is not occupied by the Borrower as his or her principal residence.

On or about June 23, 2022, the FHA mortgage insurance on Petitioner's primary mortgage was terminated, as the lender indicated that the primary mortgage was paid in full. The total amount due now consists of:

- i. $25,673.86 as the unpaid principal balance as of June 30, 2024;
- ii. $834.34 as the unpaid interest on the principal balance at 3.0% per annum through June 30, 2024;
- iii. $1,608.11 as the unpaid penalties and administrative costs through June 30, 2024; and
- iv. interest on said principal balance from July 1, 2024, at 3.0% per annum until paid.¹

A "Notice of Intent to Initiate Administrative Wage Garnishment Proceedings" ("Notice") dated May 20, 2024, was sent by the U.S. Department of Treasury on behalf of HUD to Petitioner's last-known address. In accordance with 31 C.F.R. § 285.11(e)(2)(ii), the Notice afforded Petitioner the opportunity to enter into a written repayment agreement with HUD under mutually agreeable terms.

HUD's attempt to obtain Petitioner's current income information was unsuccessful. Therefore, HUD proposes a wage garnishment repayment schedule of $781.00 per month, which will liquidate the debt in approximately three years as recommended by the Federal Claims Collections Standards; or alternatively, a repayment schedule in an amount equal to 15% of Petitioner's disposable income.

DISCUSSION

The Secretary bears the initial burden of proof to show the existence and amount of the alleged debt. See 31 C.F.R. § 285.11(f)(8)(i). Petitioner, thereafter, must show by a preponderance of the evidence that no debt exists or that the amount of the debt is incorrect. See 31 C.F.R. § 285.11(f)(8)(ii). Additionally, Petitioner may present evidence that the terms of the proposed repayment schedule are unlawful, would cause an undue hardship to Petitioner, or that the alleged debt is legally unenforceable. Id.

As evidence of the Petitioner's indebtedness, the Secretary has filed the Secretary's Statement that Petitioner's Debt is Past Due and Legally Enforceable and Proposed Repayment Schedule together with a copy of the Promissory Note signed by Petitioner and the Declaration of Brian Dillon, Director, Asset Recovery Division, wherein Mr. Dillon states the full amount of the debt owed by Petitioner. The express language of the Note, signed and agreed to by Petitioner, states under "Borrower's Promise to Pay," that "[i]n return for a loan received from Lender, Borrower promises to pay the principal sum of Twenty-Five Thousand and Six Hundred Seventy-Three Dollars and 86 Cents (U.S. $25,673.86), to the order of Lender." (emphasis removed). The Note further states that payment will be made at the Office of Housing FHA-

¹ If found liable for the debt, Petitioner may also be responsible for U.S. Department of Treasury debt collection fees pursuant to 31 U.S.C. § 3711(g)(6).

Comptroller, Director of Mortgage Insurance Accounting and Servicing, Washington, D.C. Accordingly, the copy of the Note submitted by HUD under oath is sufficient to establish the existence and the amount of the debt owed by Petitioner.

In his Request, Petitioner contests the existence of the debt stating that the matter has been resolved and closed. However, Petitioner has not provided any evidence to refute the amount of the debt as claimed by the Secretary or to show that the Note was paid. It is axiomatic that assertions without evidence are not sufficient to show that the debt claimed by the Secretary is not past due or unenforceable. See In re Hongmei Zhang, HUDOHA No. 24-AF-0163-AG-093, slip op. at 3 (Dec. 3, 2024). Accordingly, the Court finds Petitioner has not met his burden to prove that the debt has been satisfied.

Therefore, the Secretary may garnish the lesser of 15% of Petitioner's disposable pay or $781.00 per month. Petitioner is entitled to seek reassessment of the repayment schedule in the future in the event he experiences materially-changed financial circumstances. See 31 C.F.R. § 285.11(k).

ORDER

For the reasons set forth above, the Court finds the subject debt to be legally enforceable against Petitioner in the amount claimed by the Secretary. It is:

ORDERED that the Secretary is authorized to seek administrative wage garnishment in the amount of 15% of Petitioner's disposable pay (or $781.00 per month, discussed above), or such other amount as determined by the Secretary, not to exceed 15% of Petitioner's disposable pay. It is FURTHER ORDERED that the Order imposing the Stay of Referral of this matter to the U.S. Department of the Treasury for administrative wage garnishment is VACATED.
