¹ For PRAC projects, if the tenant pays utilities separately, the contract rent is the operating rent (operating cost) minus the HUD-approved utility allowances. If all utilities are included in the rent, the contract rent is the operating rent.

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1.33 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. This agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection information unless that collection displays a valid OMB control number.

The Department of Housing & Urban Development is authorized to collect this information by the U.S. Housing Act of 1937, as amended. Providing all information is mandatory, and failure to provide information will affect participation in HUD programs and may prevent an owner/agent receiving payment to offset 60 day vacancies. The information provided will be used by HUD to review the accuracy of funds requested by owner/agent for vacancy losses up to 60 days in length. No assurances of confidentiality are provided for this information collection, but HUD will not disclose data on a specific project or tenant, except as required by law.

Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions to reduce this burden, to the Reports Management Officer, QDAM, Department of Housing and Urban Development, 451 7th Street, SW, Room 4176, Washington, DC 20410-5000. When providing comments, please refer to OMB Approval No. 2502-0182.
