

Rental Assistance Demonstration RADBlast!

RAD Photo Essay: RAD in Northfield

- The RAD Team

The RAD Photo Essays series documents the resident experience for properties that go through a RAD conversion. The purpose of RAD is to preserve and improve affordable housing so that residents can live in stable, healthy, and safe environments. This series highlights the quality-of-life impact of RAD on people. After all, the success of RAD isn't measured in dollars but in people. To join the RAD email list, please go here.
