A BILL

To amend the United States Housing Act of 1937 and other Acts to improve rental assistance programs at the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE AND TABLE OF CONTENTS.

(a) SHORT TITLE.—This Act may be cited as the “Making Affordable Housing Work Act of 2018”.

(b) TABLE OF CONTENTS.—The table of contents for this Act is as follows:

Sec. 1. Short title and table of contents.
Sec. 2. Rental payments amendments.
Sec. 3. Low-income housing assistance amendments.
Sec. 4. Self-certification of assets.
Sec. 5. Housing for the elderly.
Sec. 6. Supportive housing for persons with disabilities.
Sec. 7. Technical and conforming amendments.

SEC 2. RENTAL PAYMENTS AMENDMENTS.

(a) OCCUPANCY REQUIREMENTS AND FAMILY RENTS—Section 3 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. 1437a) is amended—

(1) in subsection (a), by—

(A) inserting “OCCUPANCY REQUIREMENTS AND FAMILY RENTS.—” after “(a)”;

(B) amending paragraphs (1) and (2) to read as follows:

“(1) OCCUPANCY REQUIREMENTS.—Dwelling units assisted under this Act shall be rented only to families who meet the requirements in this paragraph.
“(A) INCOME LIMITS.—The family shall be a low-income family at the time of the initial occupancy of the unit.

“(B) OVERHOUSING.—No one person, living alone, may be provided a housing unit assisted under this Act of two or more bedrooms, unless that person is—

“(i) an elderly person;
“(ii) a person with disabilities;
“(iii) a displaced person; or “(iv) the remaining member of a tenant family.

“(C) ABSENCE OF CHILDREN.—The temporary absence of a child from the home due to placement in foster care shall not be considered in determining family composition and family size.

“(2) RENT STRUCTURES.—

“(A) RENTS FOR FAMILIES.—Except as provided otherwise in this paragraph, a family shall pay as monthly rent for a dwelling unit assisted under this Act (other than dwelling units receiving tenant-based assistance under sections 8(o), 8(t), or 8(y)), the higher of—

“(i) 35 percent of the family’s monthly income; or “(ii) 35 percent of the amount earned by an individual working 15 hours a week for four weeks at the federal minimum wage, as determined by section 6(a)(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C.
206(a)(1)), rounded to the nearest 10 dollars. The Secretary may adjust the number of hours of work per week used to determine the family rent through regulation, but the number of hours may not be less than 15 hours.

“(B) RENTS FOR EXEMPTED FAMILIES.—Elderly families, disabled families, and such other families defined by the Secretary through regulation shall pay as monthly rent for an assisted dwelling unit the higher of—

“(i) 30 percent of the family’s monthly income; or “(ii) minimum rent, which shall be at least $50 and may be adjusted by the Secretary through regulation.

“(C) HARDSHIP EXEMPTION.—

“(i) IN GENERAL.—For rent structures established in subparagraphs (A) and (B), a public housing agency, in the case of public housing or voucher assistance, or owner, in the case of project-based assistance, shall immediately grant an exemption from the family rent structures established under this paragraph for any family unable to pay the family rent due to a financial hardship, which includes the following circumstances:

“(I) The family has lost eligibility for, or is awaiting an eligibility determination for, a Federal, State, or local assistance program, including a family that includes a member who is an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence under the Immigration and Nationality Act who would be entitled to public benefits but for title IV of the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 (8 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.).
“(II) The family would be evicted as a result of the imposition of the family rent structure under this paragraph.

“(III) The income of the family has decreased because of changed circumstances, including the loss of employment.

“(IV) A death in the family has occurred.

“(V) Other situations as may be determined by the public housing agency, the owner, or the Secretary.

“(ii) WAITING PERIOD.—If a family requests a hardship exemption under this subparagraph and the public housing agency, in the case of public housing or voucher assistance, or owner, in the case of project-based assistance, reasonably determines the hardship to be of a temporary nature, an exemption shall not be granted during the 90-day period beginning upon the making of a request for the exemption. A family may not be evicted during such 90-day period for nonpayment of rent. In such a case, if the family thereafter demonstrates that the financial hardship is of a long-term basis, the public housing agency or owner shall retroactively exempt the family from the applicability of the family rent for such 90-day period.

“(D) ALTERNATIVE FAMILY RENT STRUCTURES.—In order to encourage families to achieve self-sufficiency and for administrative efficiency, alternative family rent structures different from subparagraph (A) may be established under this subparagraph.
“(i) SECRETARY-ESTABLISHED RENTS.—The Secretary may, through regulation, establish alternative family rent structures that a public housing agency or owner, which meets eligibility criteria established by the Secretary, may elect to adopt upon notification to the Secretary. These alternative family rent structures may include, but are not limited to, tiered rents, stepped rents, or timed escrow, as long as such alternative rent structures serve substantially the same number of families as the family rent in subparagraph (A) without additional Federal appropriated funds and provide a reasonable hardship exemption.

“(ii) PHA- AND OWNER-ESTABLISHED RENTS.—Alternatively, a public housing agency, in the case of public housing or voucher assistance, or owner, in the case of project-based assistance, may request approval from the Secretary to establish an alternative family rent structure as long as such alternative rent structure—

“(I) serves substantially the same number of families as the family rent in subparagraph (A) without additional Federal appropriated funds;

“(II) is appropriate for the housing market;

“(III) provides a reasonable hardship exemption for families; and “(IV) meets any other standards established by the Secretary.

“(iii) ALTERNATIVE INCOME RECERTIFICATIONS.—In establishing alternative family rent structures under clause (i) or approving alternative rent structures under clause (ii), the Secretary may establish requirements for income recertification different from those in paragraph (6)(A).

“(E) MINIMUM FAMILY SHARE.—For sections 8(o), 8(t), and 8(y), the minimum family share shall be the family rent determined under this paragraph.

“(F) MINIMUM WORK REQUIREMENTS.—A public housing agency, in the case of the public housing or voucher assistance, or an owner, in the case of project-based assistance, may establish minimum work requirements for individuals or families, excluding persons at least 65 years of age, persons with disabilities, elderly and disabled families, and such other individuals or families as defined by the Secretary through regulation. A public housing agency or owner that imposes work requirements shall be exempt from imposing the community service and self-sufficiency requirements under section 12(c) (42 U.S.C. 1437j(c)). The Secretary shall, through regulation, establish—

“(i) criteria regarding the population that may be subject to work requirements;

“(ii) the maximum number of hours of work per week that a public housing agency or owner may require;

“(iii) the definition of work, including forms of employment or employment-related activities that would satisfy any work requirement instituted by the public housing agency or owner; and
“(iv) other criteria the Secretary determines are needed to prevent adverse impacts.”;

(C) striking and reserving paragraph (3); and

(D) amending paragraphs (6) and (7) to read as follows:

“(6) REVIEWS OF FAMILY INCOME.—

“(A) FAMILY INCOME REVIEW FREQUENCY.—Reviews of family income for purposes of this section shall be made—

“(i) in the case of all families, upon the initial provision of housing assistance for the family; and “(ii) every 3 years thereafter.

“(B) INTERIM REEXAMINATIONS.—

“(i) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in clause (ii) and upon the request of a family, a public housing agency or owner is only required to conduct an interim reexamination of income if the family’s income has decreased by 20 percent or more.

“(ii) EXEMPTED FAMILIES.—Upon the request of an elderly family, a disabled family, or such other families as defined by the Secretary through regulation, a public housing agency or owner is only required to conduct an interim reexamination of income if the family’s income has decreased by 10 percent or more.

“(iii) INCREASES IN INCOME.—No interim reexamination is permitted that results in a higher family rent.
“(C) OTHER.—Reviews of family income for purposes of this section shall be subject to the provisions of section 904 of the Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Amendments Act of 1988 (42 U.S.C. 3544).

“(7) CALCULATION OF INCOME.—

“(A) USE OF CURRENT YEAR INCOME.—In determining family income for initial occupancy or income recertifications pursuant to paragraph (6), a public housing agency, in the case of public housing or voucher assistance, or owner, in the case of project-based assistance, shall use the income of the family as estimated by the agency or owner for the upcoming year, which may be based on the prior year’s income.

“(B) SAFE HARBOR.—A public housing agency, in the case of public housing or voucher assistance, or owner, in the case of project-based assistance, may, to the extent such information is available to the public housing agency or owner, determine the family’s income based on timely income determinations made for purposes of other means-tested Federal public assistance programs (including the program for block grants to States for temporary assistance for needy families under part A of title IV of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), a program for Medicaid assistance under a State plan approved under title XIX of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1101 et seq.), and the supplemental nutrition assistance program (as such term is defined in section 3 of the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008 (7 U.S.C. 2012))). The Secretary shall, in consultation with other appropriate Federal agencies, develop electronic procedures to enable public housing agencies and owners to have access to such benefit determinations made by other means-tested Federal programs that the Secretary determines to have comparable reliability. Exchanges of such information shall be subject to the same limitations and tenant protections provided under section 904 of the Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Act Amendments of 1988 (42 U.S.C. 3544) with respect to information obtained under the requirements of section 303(i) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 503(i)).

“(C) ELECTRONIC INCOME VERIFICATION.—The Secretary shall develop a mechanism for disclosing information to a public housing agency for the purpose of verifying the employment and income of individuals and families in accordance with section 453(j)(7)(E) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 653(j)(7)(E)), and shall ensure public housing agencies have access to information contained in the ‘Do Not Pay’ system established by section 5 of the Improper Payments Elimination and Recovery Improvement Act of 2012 (31 U.S.C. 3321 note).

“(D) PROCEDURES.—Each public housing agency, in the case of public housing or voucher assistance, or owner, in the case of project-based assistance, administering assistance under this Act shall establish procedures that are appropriate and necessary to ensure that income data provided to the agency and owners by families applying for or receiving assistance is complete and accurate.

“(E) PHA AND OWNER COMPLIANCE.—A public housing agency or owner may not be considered to fail to comply with this paragraph or paragraph (6) due solely to any de minimis errors made by the agency or owner in calculating family incomes.”; and
(2) in subsection (b), by—

(A) amending paragraphs (3) and (4) to read as follows:

“(3) FAMILIES AND PERSONS.—

“(A) FAMILIES.—

“(i) IN GENERAL.—

“(I) The term “family” means a household consisting of one or more persons, including households with children.

“(II) The term “family” also includes, in the cases of elderly families, near-elderly families, and disabled families, 2 or more elderly persons, near-elderly persons, or persons with disabilities living together, and 1 or more such persons living with 1 or more persons determined under the public housing agency plan to be essential to their care or well-being.

“(ii) ELDERLY FAMILY.—

“(I) The term “elderly family” means a family whose head of household, co-head of household, spouse, or sole member is an elderly person.

“(II) For purposes of determining the family rent under subsection (a)(2), requesting interim examinations under subsection (a)(6)(B), and setting work requirements under subsection (a)(2)(F), all adults living in the assisted unit, other than a live-in aide as defined by the Secretary, shall be a person with disabilities or who is at least 65 years of age.
“(iii) DISABLED FAMILY.—

“(I) The term “disabled family” means a family whose head of household, co-head of household, spouse, or sole member is a person with disabilities.

“(II) For purposes of determining the family rent under subsection (a)(2), requesting interim examinations under subsection (a)(6)(B), and setting work requirements under subsection (a)(2)(F), all adults living in the assisted unit, other than a live-in aide as defined by the Secretary, shall be a person with disabilities or who is at least 65 years of age.

“(iv) NEAR-ELDERLY FAMILY.—The term “near-elderly family” means any family whose head of household, co-head of household, or spouse of the head of household is a near-elderly person.

“(B) PERSONS.—

“(i) ELDERLY PERSON.—The term “elderly person” means a person who is at least 62 years of age.

“(ii) PERSON WITH DISABILITIES.—

“(I) The term “person with disabilities” means a person who—

“(aa) has a disability as defined in section 223 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 423);

“(bb) is determined, pursuant to regulations issued by the Secretary, to have a physical, mental, or emotional impairment which is expected to be of long-continued and indefinite duration, substantially impedes his or her ability to live independently, and is of such a nature that such ability could be improved by more suitable housing conditions;

“(cc) has a developmental disability as defined in section 102 of the Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act of 2000 (42 U.S.C. 15002(8)); or “(dd) has the disease of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome or any conditions arising from the etiologic agent for acquired immunodeficiency syndrome.

“(II) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no individual shall be considered a person with disabilities, for purposes of eligibility for low-income housing under this title, solely on the basis of any drug or alcohol dependence. The Secretary shall consult with other appropriate Federal agencies to implement the preceding sentence.

“(iii) DISPLACED PERSON.—The term “displaced person” means a person displaced by governmental action or by one or more activities undertaken with Federal financial assistance, or a person whose dwelling has been extensively damaged or destroyed as a result of a disaster declared or otherwise formally recognized pursuant to Federal disaster relief laws.
“(iv) NEAR-ELDERLY PERSON.—The term “near-elderly person” means a person who is at least 50 years of age but below the age of an elderly person.

“(4) INCOME.—The term “income” means, with respect to a family, annual income received from all sources by each member of the family who is 18 years of age or older or is the head of household or spouse of the head of the household, plus unearned income by or on behalf of each dependent who is less than 18 years of age, as determined in accordance with criteria prescribed by the Secretary, in consultation with the Secretary of Agriculture, subject to the following requirements:

“(A) INCLUDED AMOUNTS.—Such term includes recurring gifts and receipts, actual income from assets, and profit or loss from a business.

“(B) EXCLUDED AMOUNTS.—Such term does not include—

(i) any return on net family assets, as defined by section 16(e), as long as the value of the net family assets is under $25,000, after an annual inflation adjustment done by the Secretary in accordance with an inflationary index selected by the Secretary;

“(ii) any amounts that would be eligible for exclusion under section 1613(a)(7) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1382b(a)(7));

“(iii) deferred disability benefits from the Department of Veterans Affairs that are received in a lump sum amount or in prospective monthly amounts;
“(iv) any expenses related to aid and attendance under section 1521 of title 38, United States Code, to veterans who are in need of regular aid and attendance;

“(v) earned income, up to an amount as the Secretary may establish by notice with public comment, of any dependent earned during any period that such dependent is attending school or vocational training on a full-time basis;

“(vi) any grant-in-aid or scholarship amounts related to attendance on a full-time basis at a school or vocational training used—

“(I) for the cost of tuition and any other required fees and charges or books; or

“(II) in such amounts as the Secretary may allow, for the cost of room and board;

“(vii) any amounts in or from, or any benefits from, any ABLE accounts under section 529A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (26 U.S.C. 259A), any Coverdell education savings account under section 530 of such Code (26 U.S.C. 530), or any qualified tuition program under section 529 of such Code (26 U.S.C. 529); and “(viii) exclusions from income as established by the Secretary by regulation or notice, or any amount required by Federal law to be excluded from consideration as income.

“(C) MONTHLY INCOME.—A family’s monthly income is the family’s income divided by 12.
“(D) RECORDKEEPING.—The Secretary may not require a public housing agency or owner to maintain records of any amounts excluded from income pursuant to this subparagraph.”;
(B) striking and reserving paragraph (5); and
(C) adding at the end the following new paragraph:
“(14) OWNER.—The term “owner” means any private person or entity, including a cooperative, an agency of the Federal Government, or a public housing agency, having the legal right to lease or sublease dwelling units.”.
(b) IMPLEMENTATION.—
(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary may implement the changes in subsection (a) as necessary to minimize negative impacts on families, public housing agencies, or owners.
(2) HOLD HARMLESS FOR ELDERLY AND DISABLED FAMILIES.—To implement the rent structures under section 3(a)(2)(B) of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. 1437a(a)(2)(B)), as amended by this Act, for disabled families and families consisting of persons 62 years of age or older receiving assistance under the United States Housing Act of 1937 at the time of enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall phase in any subsequent increases in rent over two triennial recertifications under section 3(a)(6)(A), as amended by this Act.
