The Federal Housing Administration (FHA) is revising its Form HUD 92900-A, Addendum to the URLA, as part of a wider effort included in the Housing Finance Reform plan to provide clarity and certainty to its program participants while also managing risk to the Mutual Mortgage Insurance Fund. To that end, FHA has undertaken to align the certifications in the Form HUD 92900-A with information required by law. FHA has determined that revising the 92900-A to capture this information will improve the ability of program participants as well as borrowers to comply with the required certifications. The use of Form 92900-A is required by 24 CFR 203.255(b) and 24 CFR 206.115 for all Single Family Forward Mortgages and Home Equity Conversion Mortgages (HECM).

The loan level certifications on form HUD-92900-A are revised to better reflect regulatory and other legal requirements, ensure accuracy of information provided to FHA and reduce uncertainty in the industry. With this revision:

- FHA and the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) have discontinued sharing the 92900-A.
- Pages one and two now obtain consent from the borrower to verify their social security number and provide important disclosures regarding:
  - the Public Reporting Burden for purposes of the Paperwork Reduction Act;
  - the Privacy Act of 1974;
  - Delinquencies, Defaults, Foreclosures and abuses; and
  - the Fair Housing Act of 1968.
- A warning about false certifications has also been added to the first page.
- Page three requires certifications consistent with 24 CFR 203.255(b) from the:
  - Mortgagee representative and the Direct Endorsement (DE) Underwriter for the appraisal when the mortgage receives an approval from FHA’s TOTAL Mortgage Scorecard, and
  - DE Underwriter for manually underwritten loans.
- Page four now requires a post-closing certification from the Mortgagee representative prior to submission of the loan to FHA for insurance endorsement as required by 24 CFR 203.255(b).
Additionally, the following forms and model documents have been renewed and where applicable contain a new expiration date:

- HUD-92900-B, Important Notice to Homebuyers;
- HUD-92900-LT, FHA Loan Underwriting and Transmittal Summary;
- HUD-92561, Borrower's Contract with Respect to Hotel and Transient Use of Property;
- HUD-92544, Warranty of Completion of Construction
- Model Notice for Informed Consumer Choice Disclosure
- Model Pre-Insurance Review/Checklist;
- Settlement Certification (previously known as Addendum to HUD-1)

Throughout Handbook 4000.1, the title of form HUD-92900-A will be changed from “HUD/VA Addendum to the URLA” to “HUD Addendum to the URLA.”

The following Handbook 4000.1 section will be removed in its entirety:

New Construction – Completion of Construction (II.A.8.i.viii)
Regardless of the inspection process used, the Mortgagee must certify on form HUD-92900-A, HUD/VA Addendum to Uniform Residential Loan Application, that the Property is 100 percent complete and meets HUD’s MPR and MPS.

The information collection requirements contained in this document have been approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501-3520) and assigned OMB Control Number 2502-0059. In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act, HUD may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless the collection displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.
