Background
On January 20, 2021, President Joseph R. Biden directed agencies to extend a federal moratorium on evictions and a moratorium on foreclosures on federally guaranteed mortgages in response to the coronavirus pandemic. HUD had imposed moratoriums beginning on March 18, 2020, when HUD published ML 2020-04, through which the Secretary of HUD authorized a 60-day moratorium on foreclosures of FHA-insured mortgages and evictions of persons from properties securing FHA-insured mortgages, to ensure that individuals and families were not displaced during this critical period. On May 14, 2020, HUD published ML 2020-13 to extend the moratorium that expired on May 17, 2020 through June 30, 2020. On June 17, 2020, HUD published ML 2020-19 to extend the moratorium through August 31, 2020. On August 8, 2020, the President issued an Executive Order to minimize, to the greatest extent possible, residential evictions and foreclosures during the ongoing COVID-19 national emergency, and for HUD to take action to promote the ability of renters and homeowners to avoid eviction or foreclosure resulting from financial hardships caused by COVID-19. In response, HUD issued MLs 2020-19, 2020-27, and 2020-43. Due to the continued national emergency resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic and pursuant to the President’s direction, HUD is issuing a further extension for all FHA-insured mortgages except those secured by vacant or abandoned properties.

Moratorium on Foreclosures and Evictions and Extension of Deadlines
FHA-insured Single Family mortgages, excluding vacant or abandoned properties, are subject to an extension to the moratorium on foreclosure through March 31, 2021. The moratorium applies to the initiation of foreclosures and to foreclosures in process.

Separate from any eviction moratorium that was applicable to lessors under the CARES Act, evictions of persons from properties securing FHA-insured Single Family mortgages, excluding actions to evict occupants of legally vacant or abandoned properties, are also suspended through March 31, 2021.

Deadlines for the first legal action and reasonable diligence timelines are extended by 120 days from the date of expiration of this moratorium for FHA-insured Single Family mortgages, except for FHA-insured mortgages secured by vacant or abandoned properties.
