Background

FHA continues to receive requests to clarify its conflict of interest and dual employment guidance regarding Mortgagee employees and other individuals that may wish to perform multiple roles in a single FHA-insured transaction. Most questions relate to indirect compensation, including ownership interest in a business that is participating in the same FHA-insured transaction or a family relationship between two participants in an FHA-insured transaction.

With this Mortgagee Letter, FHA is consolidating various conflict of interest and dual employment subsections of Handbook 4000.1 and clarifying its general conflict of interest policy by prohibiting individuals that have a direct impact on the mortgage approval decision from having multiple roles or sources of compensation from a single FHA-insured transaction while permitting all other individuals to have multiple compensated roles for services actually performed and permitted by HUD, provided that the FHA-insured transaction complies with all applicable federal, state and local laws, rules, and requirements.

f. Conflicts of Interest

This policy applies to all FHA-insured transactions unless otherwise specified in program requirements.

Participants that have a direct impact on the mortgage approval decision are prohibited from having multiple roles or sources of compensation, either directly or indirectly, from a single FHA-insured transaction. These participants are:

- underwriters
- Appraisers
- inspectors
- engineers

Indirect compensation includes any compensation resulting from the same FHA-insured transaction, other than for services performed in a direct role. Examples include, but are not limited to:

- Compensation resulting from an ownership interest in any other business that is a party to the same FHA-insured transaction; or
- Compensation earned by a spouse, domestic partner, or other Family Member that has a direct role in the same FHA-insured transaction.

The Mortgagee must ensure that participants with a direct impact on the mortgage approval decision do not have multiple roles or sources of compensation from the same FHA-insured transaction.

Participants that do not have a direct impact on the mortgage approval decision may have multiple roles and/or sources of compensation for services actually performed and permitted by HUD, provided that the FHA-insured transaction complies with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, rules, and requirements.
