The public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 10 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. This information is required to obtain benefits. HUD may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control number. This information is required in order to administer the Property Disposition Sales Program(24 CFR 291). This collection of information is required in order to provide a binding contract between the property purchaser and HUD. If this information were not collected, HUD would not be able to administer the Program properly to avoid waste, mismanagement and abuse. While no assurances of confidentiality are pledged to respondents, HUD generally discloses this data only in response to a Freedom Of Information Request.

Privacy Act Notice - The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, Federal Housing Administration, is authorized to solicit the information requested on this form by virtue of Title 12, United States Code, Section 1701 et seq. The Housing and Community Development Act of 1987, 42 U.S.C. 3543 authorized HUD to collect Social Security Numbers. These numbers are used to provide information to the IRS regarding payment of commissions or other fees. HUD may also disclose this information to Federal, State and local agencies when relevant to civil, criminal, or regulatory investigation and prosecutions. It will not be otherwise disclosed or released outside of HUD, except as required and permitted by law. Failure to provide the Social Security Number could affect your participation in HUD's property disposition program.

Warning: HUD will prosecute false claims and statements. Conviction may result in criminal and/or civil penalties. (18 U.S.C. 1001, 1011, 1012; 31 U.S.C. 3729, 3802)
