

Enforcement Interpretative Bulletin
H-1-77
PIA RESPONSIBILITY FOR DOCUMENTS
REQUIRED TO BE PROVIDED
WITH THE MOBILE HOME
3282.361(a) and (c)

If documents are required to be provided with the mobile home, the DAPIA is responsible for assuring that the quality assurance manual calls for the provision of these documents. These documents include the purchaser information cards required by 24 CFR 3282.211, the installation instructions required by CFR 3280.306(b), and the consumer manual required by 617 of the Act, 42 U.S.C.5416.

With the exception of the installation instructions, the DAPIA is not responsible for reviewing the documents in question to assure that they meet the substantive requirements. The DAPIA is required only to assure that the quality assurance manual provides for checking and recording the presence of the documents in the mobile home when it delivered to the dealer.

The IPIA is not responsible for assuring that these documents have been provided with the mobile home.

This Enforcement Interpretative Bulletin is issued pursuant to 24 CFR 3282.113. The Secretary deems it would not be in the public interest to issue this interpretation for public comment in the Federal Register or otherwise treat this Enforcement Interpretative Bulletin as rulemaking.
