AGENCY, Affiliate,

Respondents.

HUDALJ 91-1693-DB

ORDER

By order dated September 24, 1991, Respondents were required to show cause why they did not file their Answer to the Complaint in the above captioned case. Paragraph 5 of the Order states that Respondents' failure to comply shall constitute consent to dismissal of their appeal with prejudice. By letter dated October 3, 1991, Respondents replied to the Order claiming that they are guilty of no wrongdoing but wish to avoid the expense and mental anguish resulting from litigation. Respondents further stated that they did not intend to file an Answer or to show cause why they did not file an Answer in a timely manner. Accordingly, it is ORDERED that

Respondents' appeal is hereby dismissed with prejudice.
