DETERMINATION AND ORDER

A bench decision was issued in the above case on November 21, 1985, pursuant to 24 C.F.R. §26.24(d). In that decision, it was determined that Robert J. Lynch shall be debarred from this date until December 19, 1986, credit having been given for the time he was suspended. The Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law on which this Determination is based are contained in the Transcript of Hearing, November 21, 1985.

You are hereby advised that 24 C.F.R. §24.8(b) states:

The Hearing Officer's determination shall be final unless within 30 days the Secretary decides, as a matter of discretion, to review the findings of the Hearing Officer or to have the findings reviewed by a designee of the Secretary. Any party may request such a review in writing within 10 days of receipt of the Hearing Officer's determination.

ORDERED this 22nd day of November, 1985.

JEAN S. COOPER
Administrative Judge
