

Project Summary of the Successful LBPHC / LHRD Applicants

Arizona

City of Phoenix

The City of Phoenix will be awarded $4,704,315 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program and Healthy Homes Supplement funding. The City of Phoenix will address lead hazards in 180 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. City of Phoenix will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Thaddis Jackson, (602) 495-0474 and thaddis.jackson@phoenix.gov.

California

The Sacramento Housing and Redevelopment Agency will be awarded $2,000,000 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program funding. The Sacramento Housing and Redevelopment Agency will address lead hazards in 160 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. Sacramento Housing and Redevelopment Agency will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Vicki Smith, (916) 440-1363 and vsmith@shra.org.

The Los Angeles County will be awarded $5,700,000 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program and Healthy Homes Supplement funding. The Los Angeles County will address lead hazards in 150 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. Los Angeles County will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Linda Jenkins-Swift, (626) 586-1765 and linda.jenkins@lacda.org.

The California Department of Public Health will be awarded $3,400,000 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program and Healthy Homes Supplement funding. The California Department of Public Health will address lead hazards in 100 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. California Department of Public Health will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Shakoora Azimi-Gaylon, 510 60 5614 and shakoora.azimi-gaylon@cdph.ca.gov.

The County of Fresno will be awarded $3,000,000 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program funding. The County of Fresno will address lead hazards in 130 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. County of Fresno will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Amy Dobrinin, (559) 600-3357 and adobrinin@fresnocountyca.gov.

Connecticut

The City of New Britain will be awarded $5,600,000 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program and Healthy Homes Supplement funding. The City of New Britain will address lead hazards in 225 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. City of New Britain will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Jack Benjamin, (860) 826-3333 and jack.benjamin@newbritainct.gov.

Iowa

The City of Dubuque will be awarded $4,275,681 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program and Healthy Homes Supplement funding. The City of Dubuque will address lead hazards in 90 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. City of Dubuque will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Alexis Steger, (563) 589-4230 and asteger@cityofdubuque.org.

The Southwest Iowa Planning Council will be awarded $1,400,000 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program and Healthy Homes Supplement funding. The Southwest Iowa Planning Council will address lead hazards in 35 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. Southwest Iowa Planning Council will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Alexsis Fleener, (712) 243-4196 and alexsis.fleener@swipco.org.

The Polk County will be awarded $3,455,000 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program and Healthy Homes Supplement funding. The Polk County will address lead hazards in 150 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. Polk County will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Laurie Gust, (515) 286-3752 and laurie.gust@polkcountyiowa.gov.

The City of Pocatello will be awarded $2,648,197 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program and Healthy Homes Supplement funding. The City of Pocatello will address lead hazards in 100 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. City of Pocatello will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Christine Howe, (208) 234-6186 and chowe@pocatello.us.

Illinois

The Cook County Department of Public Health will be awarded $4,006,184 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program and Healthy Homes Supplement funding. The Cook County Department of Public Health will address lead hazards in 185 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. Cook County Department of Public Health will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Deanna Durica, (708)

359-1005 and ddurica@cookcountyhhs.org.

The City of Springfield will be awarded $3,400,000 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program and Healthy Homes Supplement funding. The City of Springfield will address lead hazards in 169 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. City of Springfield will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Krista Kolis, (217) 789-2377 and krista.kolis@springfield.il.us.

Indiana

The City of South Bend will be awarded $3,348,550 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program and Healthy Homes Supplement funding. The City of South Bend will address lead hazards in 130 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. City of South Bend will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Elizabeth Maradik, (574) 235-5821 and emaradik@southbendin.gov.

Kentucky

The Louisville-Jefferson County will be awarded $3,475,969 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program and Healthy Homes Supplement funding. The Louisville-Jefferson County will address lead hazards in 120 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. Louisville-Jefferson County will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Erin Wallace-Wimsatt, (502) 574-1965 and erin.wallace@louisvilleky.gov.

Massachusetts

The City of Quincy will be awarded $2,915,000 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program and Healthy Homes Supplement funding. The City of Quincy will address lead hazards in 80 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. City of Quincy will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Sean Glennon, (617) 376-1167 and sglennon@quincyma.gov.

The City of Malden Redevelopment Authority will be awarded $3,100,715 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program and Healthy Homes Supplement funding. The City of Malden Redevelopment Authority will address lead hazards in 142 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. City of Malden Redevelopment Authority will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Deborah Burke, (781) 324-5720 and dburke@maldenredevelopment.com.

Maine

The City of Auburn will be awarded $3,400,000 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program and Healthy Homes Supplement funding. The City of Auburn will address lead hazards in 110 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. City of Auburn will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Zachary Maher, (207) 333-6601 x 1336 and zmaher@auburnmaine.gov.

Michigan

The City of Flint will be awarded $2,283,960 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program and Healthy Homes Supplement funding. The City of Flint will address lead hazards in 70 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. City of Flint will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Lottie Ferguson, (810) 237-2006 and lferguson@cityofflint.com.

Missouri

The Meramec Regional Planning Commission will be awarded $1,284,626 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program funding. The Meramec Regional Planning Commission will address lead hazards in 100 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. Meramec Regional Planning Commission will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Kelly Sink, (573) 265-2993 and kellysb@meramecregion.org.

Mississippi

The City of Hattiesburg will be awarded $1,617,400 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program and Healthy Homes Supplement funding. The City of Hattiesburg will address lead hazards in 75 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. City of Hattiesburg will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Jennifer Shows, (601) 545-4544 and jshows@hattiesburgms.com.

New York

The County of Westchester will be awarded $4,100,000 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program and Healthy Homes Supplement funding. The County of Westchester will address lead hazards in 180 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. County of Westchester will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Norman Drummond, (914) 995-3761 and nvv1@westchestergov.com.

Ohio

The State of Ohio will be awarded $5,700,000 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program and Healthy Homes Supplement funding. The State of Ohio will address lead hazards in 280 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. State of Ohio will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Pamela Blais, (614) 728-3105 and pam.blais@odh.ohio.gov.

Oregon

The City of Medford will be awarded $2,140,542 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program and Healthy Homes Supplement funding. The City of Medford will address lead hazards in 80 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. City of Medford will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Angela Durant, (541) 774-2390 and angela.durant@cityofmedford.org.

Pennsylvania

The City of Bethlehem will be awarded $2,242,507 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program and Healthy Homes Supplement funding. The City of Bethlehem will address lead hazards in 80 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. City of Bethlehem will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Jessica Lucas, (610) 865-7083 and jlucas@bethlehem-pa.gov.

The City of Reading will be awarded $3,300,000 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program and Healthy Homes Supplement funding. The City of Reading will address lead hazards in 150 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. City of Reading will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Jamal Abodalo, (610) 655-6328 and jamal.abodalo@readingpa.gov.

The County of Lawrence will be awarded $5,700,000 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program and Healthy Homes Supplement funding. The County of Lawrence will address lead hazards in 220 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. County of Lawrence will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Jennifer Elliott, (724) 658-7258 and jelliott@lccap.org.

Texas

The County of Harris will be awarded $4,700,000 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program and Healthy Homes Supplement funding. The County of Harris will address lead hazards in 170 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children.

County of Harris will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Beatrice Best, (713) 274-6083 and beatrice.best@phs.hctx.net.

Virginia

The City of Danville will be awarded $1,780,000 in Lead Based Paint Hazard Reduction grant program and Healthy Homes Supplement funding. The City of Danville will address lead hazards in 115 housing units providing safer homes for low and very low-income families with children. City of Danville will be working with other medical and social service providers. Contact Person: Chasta White, (434) 799-5260 ext 2506 and whitec@danvilleva.gov.