Enhancements to FHA’s Claims Without Conveyance of Title (CWCOT) Procedures

Today, the Federal Housing Administration (FHA) published Mortgagee Letter (ML) 2020-21, Enhancements to FHA’s Claims Without Conveyance of Title (CWCOT) Procedures. The guidance in this ML enhances FHA’s CWCOT procedures by:

- allowing a second appraisal upon vacancy for a property that had an exterior-only appraisal, where an interior appraisal could not be obtained;
- allowing mortgagees to submit eviction costs and certain eligible property preservation expenses incurred during post-foreclosure sales opportunities;
- updating the policy and allowable fee structure related to independent third-party providers that conduct foreclosure sales or post-foreclosure sales efforts under CWCOT procedures; and
- regularly updating discounts in FHA Connection (FHAC) and changing to tier-based pricing factors based on a property’s location, occupancy status, and appraised value. After the property’s appraised value has been established and the Commissioner’s Adjusted Fair Market Value (CAFMV) has been determined, authorized mortgagees may access the CAFMV via the link in FHAC at: https://entp.hud.gov/clas/index.cfm.

Originally piloted in 2013, CWCOT is an FHA claim option through which insurance benefits are paid to a mortgagee after the sale of the property to a third-party purchaser at foreclosure of the FHA-insured mortgage or through post-foreclosure sales efforts. This means there is no conveyance of the property to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) in exchange for payment of the mortgage insurance benefit.

The enhancements announced in ML 2020-21 take into consideration the public feedback received earlier this year when the draft Mortgagee Letter was posted on the Single Family Housing Drafting Table. These enhancements make FHA’s CWCOT program more viable for foreclosure sales associated with defaulted FHA-insured mortgages.
