FHA Catalyst: Claims Module Now Supports Bulk Submissions

The Federal Housing Administration (FHA) is pleased to announce a much-anticipated enhancement available today in the FHA Catalyst: Claims Module that enables bulk submissions of supplemental claims, including supporting and required documentation. With this enhancement, users are no longer required to individually submit supplemental claims.

This new functionality continues to improve and modernize the process for FHA-approved mortgagees to electronically submit supplemental claims for the single family forward mortgage insurance program.

The FHA Catalyst: Claims Module Single Family Forward Claims User Guide on the FHA Catalyst: Claims Module web page has been updated to include guidance on the newly available bulk submission functionality.
