Overview

This guide is designed to help you navigate some of the key programs that are funded by HUD that involve rental assistance, homeownership, homelessness, housing counseling and fair housing. As a courtesy, we have also included information on some of the other federal, state and local organizations that have related housing and support resources that you may want to inquire about.

Additional information on any of HUD's programs can be accessed online at www.hud.gov or by downloading the HUD Resource Locator app on your desktop/cell phone at <https://resources.hud.gov/> or by calling the HUD Boston Regional Office at (617) 994-8200.

Rental Assistance

HUD funds several programs which help public agencies and private property managers provide affordable rental units to lower-income households. HUD does not provide or manage housing units directly. HUD also does not manage or maintain waiting lists for any of the properties.

There are three major HUD funded programs that provide housing assistance:

1. Public Housing
2. Housing Choice Vouchers (Section 8)
3. Privately Owned Subsidized Housing

Key questions to ask: When calling a housing authority or property manager, some of the questions you might ask are:

- What are the income requirements for this program or specific unit?
- Are you accepting applications?
- Do you have any preferences? There may be preferences for disabled, homeless, victims of domestic violence or city/town residents, etc.
- For housing authorities: What programs do you have (i.e. Massachusetts has its own state run public housing program)?
- For private property managers: Do you have other properties where there may be vacancies? Do you have any preferences?

State Programs

Public Housing

What is Public Housing?

Public housing was established to provide decent and safe rental housing for eligible low-income families, the elderly and persons with disabilities. Public housing comes in all sizes and types, from scattered single-family houses to high-rise apartments for elderly families.

Who is eligible?

Public housing is limited to low-income families and individuals. A Public Housing Authority (PHA) determines your eligibility based on: 1) annual gross income; 2) whether you qualify as elderly, a person with a disability or as a family; and 3) U.S. citizenship or eligible immigration status. If you are eligible, the PHA will check your references to make sure you and your family will be good tenants. PHAs may deny admission to any applicant whose habits and practices may be expected to have a detrimental effect on other tenants or on the project's environment.

PHAs use income limits developed by HUD. Income limits vary from area to area so you may be eligible at one PHA but not at another. The PHA serving your community can provide you with the income levels for your area and family size, or you can also find the income limits online at <https://www.huduser.gov/portal/datasets/il.html>.

How do I apply?

Because HUD does not manage property directly, we do not process applications. To apply for public housing, contact your local PHA. See the list of MA Housing Authorities on page 19.

Will I need to produce any documentation?

Yes, the PHA will request whatever documentation is needed (e.g., birth certificates, tax returns) to verify the information given on your application. The PHA will also rely on verification from your employer, etc. You will be asked to sign a form to authorize release of pertinent information to the PHA.

When will I be notified?

A PHA must provide written notification. If the PHA determines that you are eligible, your name will be put on a waiting list, unless the PHA is able to assist you immediately. Once your name is reached on the waiting list, the PHA will contact you. If it is determined that you are ineligible, the PHA must say why and, if you wish, you can request an informal hearing.

Will I have to sign a lease?

If you are offered a house or apartment and accept it, you will have to sign a lease with the PHA. You may have to give the PHA a security deposit. You and the PHA representative should go over the lease together. This will give you a better understanding of your responsibilities as a tenant and the PHA's responsibilities as a landlord.

Are there any selection preferences?

Sometimes there are. Giving preference to specific groups of families enables a PHA to direct their limited housing resources to the families with the greatest housing needs. Examples of a local preference include local residency, disability, homelessness or veteran status. Since the demand for housing assistance often exceeds the limited resources available to HUD and the local PHAs, long waiting periods are common. In fact, a PHA may close its waiting list when there are more families on the list than can be assisted in the near future. Ask the local PHA if they have any preferences.

What are Housing Choice Vouchers?

A Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) allows an individual or family to choose any housing that meets the requirements of the program and is not limited to units located in subsidized housing projects. Housing choice vouchers are administered locally by the Public Housing Authority (PHA). The PHAs receive federal funds from HUD to administer the voucher program.

A family that is issued a voucher is responsible for finding a suitable housing unit of the family's choice where the owner agrees to rent under the program. This unit may include the family's present residence. Rental units must meet minimum standards of health and safety, as determined by the PHA.

A housing subsidy is paid to the landlord directly by the PHA on behalf of the participating family. The family then pays the difference between the actual rent charged by the landlord and the amount subsidized by the program. Under certain circumstances, if authorized by the PHA, a family may use its voucher to purchase a modest home.

Am I eligible?

Eligibility for a housing voucher is determined by the PHA based on the total annual gross income and family size and is limited to U.S. citizens and specified categories of non-citizens who have eligible immigration status. In general, the family's income may not exceed 50% of the median income for the county or metropolitan area in which the family chooses to live. Median income levels are published by HUD and vary by location. The PHA serving your community can provide you with the income limits for your area and family size.

During the application process, the PHA will collect information on family income, assets and family composition. The PHA will verify this information with other local agencies, your employer and bank, and will use the information to determine program eligibility and the amount of the housing assistance payment. If the PHA determines that your family is eligible, they will put your name on a waiting list, unless they are able to assist you immediately. Once your name is reached on the waiting list, the PHA will contact you and issue you a housing voucher.

How do I apply?

Apply for a Housing Choice Voucher through the PHA. See the list of MA Housing Authorities on page 19. You can apply to as many housing authorities as you wish but it is recommended that you apply to at least one PHA on the Centralized Waiting List. This is a group of 102 housing authorities in Massachusetts that share one list, so that by applying to any one of them, you are in effect applying to all of them. An application and information about the Centralized Waiting List can be found on page 26 or you can go online <https://www.affordablehousing.com/masscwl> to apply or check your status on the Waiting List.

Local preferences and waiting list - what are they and how do they affect me?

Each PHA has the discretion to establish local preferences to reflect the housing needs and priorities of its community. Giving preference to specific groups of families enables a PHA to direct their limited housing resources to families with the greatest housing needs. Since the demand for housing assistance often exceeds the limited resources available to HUD and the local PHAs, long waiting periods are common. In fact, a PHA may close its waiting list when there are more families on the list than can be assisted in the near future. Ask the PHA if they have any preferences.

Multifamily Housing

What is Multifamily Housing?

This refers to privately-owned housing complexes that are subsidized by HUD. The landlord is the private property owner. See page 28 for a listing of Multifamily properties in Massachusetts.

How do I find a Multifamily rental housing listing?

1. The listings in this book are separated by the city in which they are located. Look up the town where you want to find an apartment.

In the directory, each property is classified as:

- Elderly/Disabled — Apartments for persons or families where at least one person is 62 years old or older. In some cases, they are also available for handicapped and/or disabled persons.
- Family & Elderly — Some apartments are reserved exclusively for elderly households as defined above.
- Family — Apartments for families with no general restrictions on the type of household that can be admitted.
- Assisted Living — Elderly properties with some assisted living units.

If no one in your family is elderly, handicapped or disabled, apply at Family or Elderly/Family properties.

2. Call the property agent to ask about vacancies, eligibility, rents and application procedures.

Each property has its own system for accepting applications for the rental units they administer. In some cases, there are waiting lists and sometimes those waiting lists can be very long.

For additional information, you can contact the Multifamily Housing Clearinghouse (MFHC) for information on initiatives, programs and policies of HUD's Office of Multifamily Housing Programs. It can be accessed by dialing 1-800-MULTI-70 (1-800-685-8470).

The line is staffed Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time by customer service representatives trained to answer questions from the public, to receive requests for Multifamily publications, and to make appropriate referrals.

Homelessness Assistance

I am at risk of homelessness or currently homeless, what resources are available?

A wide variety of organizations including state government, local government and non-profit organizations assist persons at risk for homelessness or currently experiencing homelessness. The type of assistance varies based on your unique circumstance. Assistance can include emergency sheltering for individuals or families, food, job training, and assistance specifically for homeless veterans.

Where can I go if I need assistance?

A great place to begin your search is on the HUD website at <https://www.hudexchange.info/housing-and-homeless-assistance/>. Here you can find links to local organizations that can help you directly based on your situation.

In addition, Massachusetts maintains an online directory that contains information regarding sheltering resources in your community. Although you cannot apply for emergency sheltering assistance online, there are locations throughout Massachusetts to connect you to the resources you need. You can find this information at <https://www.mass.gov/how-to/find-emergency-family-shelter> or by speaking to a Homeless Coordinator at (866) 584-0653.

You may also contact Mass 211 for information regarding homeless shelters or service providers in your area. Simply go to <http://mass211.org> or dial 2-1-1.

Massachusetts also has an emergency housing assistance program called HomeBASE, which is the rehousing benefit created to provide families who are in the emergency shelter assistance system an opportunity to overcome some of the financial barriers to ending their homelessness. HomeBase can provide funds for: first and last month's rent and security deposit in a new home; furniture; a monthly stipend to help pay rent for up to one year; utilities; travel costs; many other expenses that would otherwise prevent a family from accessing a new home. If you are in a housing crisis and need help and/or want to know more about the HomeBASE Program, please call 1 (800) 224-5124.

You may also want to visit the New Lease for Homeless Families website: <https://www.newleasehousing.org/>

HUD Programs

Continuum of Care (CoC) – The Continuum of Care program provides non-profit organizations, state and local governments resources to quickly rehouse homeless individuals and families while minimizing the trauma and dislocation caused by homelessness. To find the Continuum of Care program in your area, please refer to the listing on page 57.

Subsidized housing – Many Public Housing Authorities and privately-owned multi-family properties funded through HUD offer preference to homeless individuals and families. Please see pages 4 and 6 for more information about these programs. If you have a smartphone, you can download the HUD Resource Locator app to search for HUD subsidized housing near you.

Homeownership

Thinking about buying a home?

FHA loans have been helping people become homeowners since 1934. The Federal Housing Administration (FHA) - which is part of HUD - insures the loan, so your lender can offer you a better deal such as low down payments, low closing costs or easy credit qualifying.

Buying your first home?

FHA might be just what you need. Your down payment can be as low as 3.5% of the purchase price. Available on 1-4 unit properties.

Housing Counselors can help

Want advice on buying a home, renting, default, foreclosure avoidance, credit issues or reverse mortgages? HUD approved housing counseling agencies throughout the country provide free or low-cost advice.

Search online for a housing counseling agency near you (<https://www.hud.gov/offices/hsg/sfh/hcc/hcs.cfm>), or call HUD's interactive voice system at (800) 569-4287.

How do I apply?

You can finance a home with a loan from a bank, a savings and loan, a credit union, a private mortgage company or various state government lenders. Shopping for a loan is like shopping for any other large purchase. You can save money if you take some time to look around for the best prices. Different lenders can offer quite different interest rates and loan fees; a lower interest rate can make a big difference in how much home you can afford. Talk with several lenders before you decide. Most lenders need 3-6 weeks for the whole loan approval process.

Foreclosure and How to Avoid It

Tips for Avoiding Foreclosure

Are you having trouble keeping up with your mortgage payments? Have you received a notice from your lender asking you to contact them?

Don't ignore the letters from your lender. Contact your lender immediately.

Contact a HUD-approved housing counseling agency: <https://www.hud.gov/offices/hsg/sfh/hcc/hcs.cfm>

Toll FREE (800) 569-4287

TTY (800) 877-8339

If you are unable to make your mortgage payment:

- 1. Don't ignore the problem.

The further behind you become, the harder it will be to reinstate your loan and the more likely that you will lose your house.

- 2. Contact your lender as soon as you realize that you have a problem.

Lenders do not want your house. They have options to help borrowers through difficult financial times.

- 3. Open and respond to all mail from your lender.

The first notices you receive will offer good information about foreclosure prevention options that can help you weather financial problems. Later mail may include important notices of pending legal action. Your failure to open the mail will not be an excuse in foreclosure court.

- 4. Know your mortgage rights.

Find your loan documents and read them so you know what your lender may do if you can't make your payments. Learn about the foreclosure laws and timeframes in your state (as every state is different) by contacting the State Government Housing Office.

- 5. Understand foreclosure prevention options.

Valuable information about foreclosure prevention (also called loss mitigation) options can be found online.

6. Contact a HUD-approved housing counselor.

HUD funds free or very low-cost housing counseling nationwide. Housing counselors can help you understand the law and your options, organize your finances and represent you in negotiations with your lender, if you need this assistance. Find a HUD-approved housing counselor near you or call (800) 569-4287 or TTY (800) 877-8339.

7. Prioritize your spending.

After healthcare, keeping your house should be your first priority. Review your finances and see where you can cut spending in order to make your mortgage payment. Look for optional expenses--cable TV, memberships, entertainment--that you can eliminate. Delay payments on credit cards and other "unsecured" debt until you have paid your mortgage.

8. Use your assets.

Do you have assets--a second car, jewelry, a whole life insurance policy--that you can sell for cash to help reinstate your loan? Can anyone in your household get an extra job to bring in additional income? Even if these efforts don't significantly increase your available cash or your income, they demonstrate to your lender that you are willing to make sacrifices to keep your home.

9. Avoid foreclosure prevention companies.

You don't need to pay fees for foreclosure prevention help--use that money to pay the mortgage instead. Many for-profit companies will contact you promising to negotiate with your lender. While these may be legitimate businesses, they will charge you a hefty fee (often two or three month's mortgage payment) for information and services your lender or a HUD-approved housing counselor will provide free if you contact them.

10. Don't lose your house to foreclosure recovery scams!

If any firm claims they can stop your foreclosure immediately and if you sign a document appointing them to act on your behalf, you may well be signing over the title to your property and becoming a renter in your own home! Never sign a legal document without reading and understanding all the terms and getting professional advice from an attorney, a trusted real estate professional or a HUD-approved housing counselor.

Can HUD help me if I haven't been able to make my mortgage payments and I'm about to lose my home?

Answer: Contact one of the HUD-approved housing counseling agencies near you. Or you can call the Housing Counseling Hotline at (800) 569-4287. Also, read our tips on avoiding foreclosure.

I have an FHA loan and I want to avoid foreclosure.

Contact our National Servicing Center for assistance. You may call the Center toll-free at (888) 297-8685 or email them at mhsg-lossmit@hud.gov.

How to Avoid Foreclosure

There can be many different reasons why homeowners get behind on their mortgage payments. Perhaps you are behind on your mortgage payments because of a job loss, decrease in income or an increase in debts. If you are behind on your mortgage payments, you could lose your family's most important possession - your home. There may be ways your lender can work with you to prevent foreclosure. Click on the following links for more information about:

HUD Homes for Sale

What is a HUD Home?

A HUD home is a 1-to-4 unit residential property acquired by HUD as a result of a foreclosure action on an FHA-insured mortgage. HUD becomes the property owner and offers it for sale to recover the loss on the foreclosure claim.

How do I find a HUD Home for sale?

HUD Home Store is the listing site for HUD real estate owned (REO) single-family properties. This site provides the public, brokers, potential owner-occupants, state and local governments and nonprofit organizations a centralized location to search the inventory of HUD properties for sale. In addition, registered real estate brokers and other organizations can place bids on behalf of their clients to purchase a HUD property. HUD Home Store also includes many informative user-friendly features providing advice and guidance for consumers on the home buying process.

Healthy Homes

HUD has a long history of working to ensure lead-safe housing, which fits into the broader federal response to address lead hazards found in paint, dust and soil, and other sources like water and consumer goods.

Lead is a highly toxic metal that may cause a range of health problems, especially in young children. When lead is absorbed into the body, it can cause damage to the brain and other vital organs, like the kidneys, nerves and blood. Both inside and outside the home, deteriorated lead paint mixes with household dust and soil and becomes tracked in.

On January 13, 2017, HUD published an amendment to the Lead Safe Housing Rule on responding promptly to cases of children under age 6 living in certain categories of HUD-assisted housing who have elevated blood lead levels. When a child under age 6 resides in HUD-assisted housing and has an elevated blood level, the housing provider will have to test the home and other potential sources of the child's lead exposure within 15 days, and ensure that hazards from lead-based paint, dust or soil are controlled within 30 days. The housing provider must also report the case to HUD so the Department can ensure that follow-up is completed on time.

HUD's Lead Safe Housing Rule applies to all federally-assisted housing. If you have concerns about lead in your home contact the Massachusetts Childhood Lead Poisoning Prevention Program at 1 (800) 532-9571.

Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity

What is housing discrimination?

The Fair Housing Act protects people from discrimination when they are renting, buying or securing financing for any housing. The prohibitions specifically cover discrimination based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, disability and the presence of children.

What housing is covered?

The Fair Housing Act covers most housing. In some circumstances, the Act exempts owner-occupied buildings with no more than four units, single-family housing sold or rented without the use of a broker and housing operated by organizations and private clubs that limit occupancy to members.

If I think my rights have been violated, where do I file a discrimination complaint?

HUD is ready to help with any problem of housing discrimination. If you think your rights have been violated, you may contact our Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity at:

U.S. Dept. of Housing and Urban Development

HUD provides the following assistance:

- A toll-free TTY phone for the hearing impaired: 1 (800) 927-9275

Violence Against Women Act (VAWA)

Senior Citizens' Resources

What are Reverse Mortgages – Home Equity Conversion Mortgages for Seniors?

Reverse mortgages are increasing in popularity with seniors who have equity in their homes and want to supplement their income. The only reverse mortgage insured by the U.S. Federal Government is called a Home Equity Conversion Mortgage or HECM, and is only available through an FHA approved lender. If you are a homeowner age 62 or older and have paid off your mortgage or paid down a considerable amount, and are currently living in the home, you may participate in FHA's Home Equity Conversion Mortgage program. The HECM is FHA's reverse mortgage program that enables you to withdraw a portion of your home's equity. You can also use a HECM to purchase a primary residence if you are able to use cash on hand to pay the difference between the HECM proceeds and the sales price plus closing costs for the property you are purchasing.

How the Program Works

There are many factors to consider before deciding whether a HECM is right for you. To aid in this process, you must meet with a HECM counselor to discuss program eligibility requirements, financial implications and alternatives to obtaining a HECM and repaying the loan. Counselors will also discuss provisions for the mortgage becoming due and payable. Upon completion of HECM counseling, you should be able to make an independent, informed decision of whether this product will meet your specific needs. You can search online for a HECM counselor at https://www.hud.gov/program\_offices/housing/sfh/hecm/ or call toll-free (800) 569-4287.

Applicants submit one application to the Centralized Waiting List system and their application is automatically added to the waitlist for all 103 participating PHAs.
