HUD Davis-Bacon Related Acts

As discussed in Chapter 2 of this Handbook, the labor standards provisions contained in the HUD Davis-Bacon Related Acts contain language effecting whether and to what extent prevailing wage requirements are applicable. The language of these Acts differs meaning that HUD Labor Relations staff must be familiar with the statutory provision, HUD interpretations of the language and HUD policy concerning applicability developed from those interpretations. The following are excerpts from HUD Related Act labor standards provisions for major programs. A comprehensive listing of covered programs under these Acts, Davis-Bacon Coverage of Major HUD Programs, is found in Appendix II-2 to this Handbook. Appendix 2 provides a list of programs under each major program office, the statutory and regulatory references, contract forms, and notes concerning exceptions and/or exclusions to coverage. More detailed explanations of factors of applicability for CDBG, HOME, and Public and Indian/Hawaiian housing are found in Appendix II-5.

The provisions of this section shall also apply to the insurance of any mortgage under section 234(d). The provisions of this section shall also apply to the insurance of any mortgage under section 242, except that compliance with such provisions may be waived by the Secretary in cases or classes of cases where laborers or mechanics, not otherwise employed at any time on the project, voluntarily donate their services without compensation for the purpose of lowering the costs of construction and the Secretary determines that any amounts thereby saved are fully credited to the nonprofit corporation, association, or other organization undertaking the construction; and each laborer or mechanic employed on any facility covered by a mortgage insured under section 242 shall receive compensation at a rate not less than one and one-half times his basic rate of pay for all hours worked in any workweek in excess of eight hours in any workday or forty hours in the workweek, as the case may be.
