18. The Respondents agree that if they desire to operate the Subject Property as "housing for older persons" with a 55-and-over age restriction as set forth in 42 U.S.C. § 3607(b), 24 C.F.R. §§ 100.305-100.307, the Subject Property must be in compliance with the HOPA requirements set forth in the Act and HUD's implementing regulations.

In the event that the Subject Property does not qualify for the HOPA exemption because it does not have at least 80% of the resident-occupied units occupied by at least one person who is 55 years of age or older, the Respondents shall not discriminate against families with children in order to achieve 80% occupancy by persons 55 years of age or older. In seeking to reach the 80% threshold, the Respondents shall not, among other things, reserve unoccupied units for persons 55 years of age or older, advertise the Subject Property community as housing for older persons, evict families with children, deny families with children an opportunity to occupy vacant units, discourage families with children from occupying units, or otherwise discriminate against families with children in the terms, conditions, or privileges of rental or sale of a unit.

The training shall be conducted by an independent, qualified third party, such as a fair housing agency or attorney, approved in advance by the Department, and any expenses associated with this training shall be borne by Respondents. At least ten (10) days prior to the training, Respondents shall obtain approval from the Department for that training.
