RULING AND ORDER OF DISMISSAL

On November 8, 2017, this court ordered Petitioner to file documentary evidence by December 22, 2017, in the above-captioned docket which will prove that all or part of the alleged debt is either unenforceable or not past due. Petitioner claimed he had been involuntarily terminated from his employment and had been employed with his current employer for less than 12 months.

On February 26, 2018, Petitioner was ordered to file "documentary evidence which will prove his involuntary termination from his previous employment and that he has been employed by his current employer for less than 12 months," on or before March 26, 2018. Order, dated February 26, 2018. Petitioner failed to comply with the February 26th Order. Therefore, it is

On March 29, 2018, Petitioner was again ordered to documentary evidence no later than April 29, 2018, or to show cause why this case should not be dismissed. That Order specifically stated that "Failure to comply with this Order shall result in the immediate entry of judgment in favor of the opposing party or in the imposition of such other sanctions as the Administrative Judge deems necessary or appropriate in this case. See 24 C.F.R. §26.4(d)." Petitioner failed to comply with the Show Cause Order, as well. Therefore, it is ORDERED that this case is DISMISSED, without prejudice. It is FURTHER ORDERED that the Stay of Referral previously entered in this case on November 8, 2017 is hereby VACATED.

SO ORDERED,

H. ALEXANDER MANUEL
Administrative Judge
