The information collection requirements contained in this notice of funding availability and application kit will be used to rate applications, determine eligibility, and establish grant amounts for the Community Development Work Study Program, (CDWSP). Total reporting burden for collection of this information is estimated to average 1 hour. This includes time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data resources, gathering, and maintaining the data needed, completing, and reviewing the collection of information. The information submitted in response to the notice of funding availability for CDWSP is subject to the disclosure requirements of the Department of Housing and Urban Development Reform Act of 189 (Pub.L. 101-235, approved December 15, 1989, U.S.C. 3545). The agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to, a collection of information unless the collection displays a valid control number.

To be eligible for participation in the Community Development Work Study Program (CDWSP), an institution must have a graduate academic degree program in one of the relevant fields as defined in the program's regulations. Closely examine the definitions of "community building" and "community building academic program" in the regulations and, if in doubt, speak with the program staff in the Office of University Partnerships before preparing an application.

Below are the degree programs that the institution has determined as eligible programs to implement this CDWSP grant.
