The decision to utilize the Certificate funding you have been awarded as either tenant-based or project-based assistance is solely the option of your agency. HUD does not provide Certificates for specific projects or require PHAs to use their Certificates for project-based assistance. Use of Certificates to provide project-based assistance is determined by individual PHAs and it is the PHA, not HUD, that selects projects to be assisted in accordance with local selection policies contained in the PHA's Administrative Plan.

*
Should your agency choose to implement a project-based Certificate Program, you must comply with all HUD requirements concerning project selection including advertising in a newspaper of general circulation, selecting units in accordance with your HUD-approved Administrative Plan and providing HUD with certifications concerning the units you select. Selection of ineligible units or selections not in conformance with your Administrative Plan is grounds for terminating the Agreement and HAP Contract.

Again, I want to emphasize that the decision to utilize the Certificate funding you have been awarded as either tenant-based or project-based assistance is solely the option of your agency.
