Welcome to winter. This Office always tries to encourage Housing professionals to let tenants and residents know about the Low Income Energy Assistance Program or (LIHEAP) http://www.acf.hhs.gov/ocs/programs/liheap. While some tribes are able to administer their own LI-HEAP program, most rely on State and County administered programs. This is perfectly fine and whichever case it might be; we encourage your Tenant Services staff to relay the critical dates for assistance with Heating costs to your low income families. Having been an Executive Director of a Housing program, I know what desperate families do to keep from freezing such as turning their ovens on all the time with the door open leading to burner failure or boiling water to increase steam in the unit but also creating a perfect mold-friendly environment, not to mention, plugging in an extension cord to a friendly neighbor’s house and running a heater using their electricity. Each of these home remedies carries its own risks and can lead to fires, mold, equipment breakdown, and or excessive electric bills. Accessing the LIHEAP program early may mean relief from some of these problems. LIHEAP can seldom cover all a home’s heating costs but $200-$300 relief can mean the difference between a healthy home and one where the family suffers. Early applications mean that a family can plan for some heating relief before the State/County/Tribal LIHEAP money runs out.

The news is out that President-elect Trump has moved to nominate Dr. Ben Carson as Secretary of HUD. This is a long process, so even if formally nominated, Dr. Carson will be vetted and voted on by the Senate prior to taking office, which won’t be until after the President-elect is formally sworn into office. In the meantime, our office will continue to discharge its duty to disburse and review all the IHBG and ICDBG grants in the Eastern Woodlands region. The good news is that by the time this is published all IHPs will likely be approved and in operation for FY 2017. The few that have Model Activities proposed will need a letter of approval either from Eastern Woodlands for repairs and improvements to existing administrative buildings or warehouses or from the Model Activity committee for other proposed activities. Contact Elton Jones, Director, GM Division, if you have questions about the Model Activity approval process.

The next big item is the review of the bulk of Annual Performance Reports or APR’s that this office receives by January 1st. Over half or some 34 out of 50+ Tribes and TDHE’s submit their APRs at this time. ONAP has 90 days to review your APR, so this should be completed by March 30th unless you requested a waiver to file late, in which case it would be 90 days from the date of submission. The APR is where you report how much of what you planned to accomplish in the IHP actually got done. Since it is often difficult to have 100% success in reaching all of your IHP goals, you are asked to explain the reasons you were unable to meet your goals, perhaps due to a delay in procurement of some critical item, the project had unexpected cost overruns or unexpected loss of staff at a critical time.

Having attended the most recent Great Lakes Indian Housing Association meeting in December, I thought I would pass on some solid advice to TDHE’s or Housing Departments about Mutual Help Ownership (MHOA) units. Think about insurance for them and try to get the residents to understand that a catastrophic loss, such as those that hit Spokane due to wild fires or Lumbee due to Hurricane Matthew, can devastate their lives. Derek Valdo, current President of AMERIND shared that only one of ten conveyed MHOA homes keep up on their homeowner’s insurance after conveyance. That puts the homeowner at extreme risk of homelessness in case of disaster. If the TDHE has conveyed the MHOA home, there is no need for the TDHE to carry insurance on a unit they no longer own, but should that MHOA unit be rendered uninhabitable due to a fire or other casualty loss, the TDHE now has a family that has been previously been taken care of back on its waiting list. It might be a good practice to give them an explanation of the risks of no insurance when the house is turned over to the homebuyer and have them sign off on having received both an oral and written explanation of the risks of going without coverage.

Until the end of January, Best Regards,

Mark Butterfield, EWONAP Administrator
GET TO KNOW THE EWONAP TEAM!

Name: David C. Thomas, Lead Grants Evaluation Specialist, GE Division

Years of ONAP Service: 7 years (and three months); previously worked in Municipal government in Michigan.

Current Duties Include: Provides support to the new GE Director through a range of activities including policy work, staff training, and programmatic duties. Oversees a portfolio comprised of some of the more complex tribes that the Division services, such as those challenged with legal, financial or other sensitive circumstances. Also serves as a mentor to new staff members, helping them learn the role of GE Specialist, including how to maneuver HUD policies and procedures.

What Skills Helped you Move from GE Specialist to Team Lead: David’s strengths are his advanced communication (Master of Arts in English) and analytical skills and the ability to be diplomatic/sensitive in varying circumstances (assisted in large part by being a father of three daughters). He also retains information well (institutional knowledge), which has proven extremely helpful in his current role and throughout his career.

Recent Project: Had the pleasure of participating in HUD’s Emerging Leaders Program; a one-year intensive leadership and management training opportunity. Out of 300 applicants, David was one of 50 nominees selected for the program. The Program, under the direction of the Graduate School USA’s Office of Programs and Project Management, included leadership and team building activities, training through a series of coursework and webcasts, community service, an agency rotation (which he completed in HUD’s Office of Community Planning and Development), a designated mentor, shadowing opportunities with senior staff, and a capstone group research project.

Best Part of His Job: David enjoys working with rural communities and having a chance to visit the reservations and housing authorities. “It feels good to be looked upon as a resource, doing work that is making a difference. No two days are ever the same!”

What Inspires Him to Do This Type of Work: David obtained a Master of Science degree in Community Development from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale because he wanted to work in rural areas with groups and individuals at the grass-root level. Staying on this path led him to HUD which has given him the opportunity to help those who need it the most.

David can be contacted at: David.C.Thomas@hud.gov

TRIBAL INTERGOVERNMENTAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE

HUD has established its first Tribal Intergovernmental Advisory Committee. The Committee will facilitate intergovernmental communication between HUD and tribal leaders on all HUD programs, make recommendations regarding current program regulations, advise HUD on American Indian and Alaska Native housing priorities, and strengthen capacity building opportunities. We invite you to refer to the attached notice for detailed instructions on how to submit nominations for Committee membership, which can be sent electronically or by mail. Nominations must be submitted by February 21, 2017.

FINAL RULE PUBLISHED 24 CFR PART 1000

Final Rule Published! 24 CFR Part 1000 Revisions to the Indian Housing Block Grant Program Formula

Published in the Federal Register, this final rule revises the Indian Housing Block Grant (IHBG) Program allocation formula authorized by section 302 of NAHASDA. Through the IHBG Program, HUD provides federal housing assistance for Indian tribes in a manner that recognizes the right of Indian self-determination and tribal self-government. HUD negotiated this final rule with active tribal participation and using the procedures of the Negotiated Rulemaking Act of 1990. The regulatory changes reflect the consensus decisions reached by HUD and the tribal representatives on ways to improve and clarify the current regulations governing the IHBG Program formula. The new regulation will take effect for the fiscal year 2018 IHBG allocations. One of the most significant changes will be that the formula data will be drawn from the United States Decennial Census and the (U. S. Census) American Community Survey; however, there will be adjustments to minimize the volatility such change could trigger. Other changes include administrative changes to the demolition language and conveyance requirements, and an increase to the minimum grant amount. Federal Register Final Rule.

SECTION 184 INDIAN HOUSING LOAN GUARANTEE PROGRAM

Effective December 1, 2016, the new annual premium of 0.25 percent of the remaining loan balance will apply to all new loan guarantees, including refinances. The Section 184 Indian Housing Loan Guarantee program (Section 184 program) is a home mortgage program specifically designed for American Indian and Alaska Native families, Alaska villages, tribes, or tribally designated housing entities. Over the last five years, the Section 184 program has doubled the number of loans and eligible families being assisted by the program. For HUD to continue to meet the increasing demand for participation in this program, HUD is exercising its authority to increase the annual premium to the borrower from 0.15 to 0.25 percent of the remaining loan balance. This annual premium will continue until the unpaid principal balance, excluding the upfront loan guarantee fee, reaches 78 percent of the lower of the initial sales price or appraised value based on the initial amortization schedule. Effective December 1, 2016 the new annual premium of 0.25 percent of the remaining loan balance will apply to all new loan guarantees, including refinances. Click here for more information.

IT grants are intended to alleviate or remove imminent threats to health or safety, in that an emergency situation exists or would exist if the problem were not addressed. The grant ceiling for imminent threat requests is $450,000, or $900,000 for Presidentially declared disasters.

BIA LAUNCHES TRIBAL LEADERS DIRECTORY AS A SEARCHABLE ELECTRONIC MAP:

The Bureau’s go-to publication for reaching Indian Country is now more accessible and user friendly

The Bureau of Indian Affairs’ popular publication, the Tribal Leaders Directory, is available as an electronic searchable map. The map provides up-to-date contact information for the nation’s 567 federally recognized tribes and all BIA regional offices and agencies. The map can be accessed via the bia.gov and indianaffairs.gov websites using the Tribal Leaders Directory link. The Directory is not the official listing of federally recognized tribes. It should be used in conjunction with the Federal Register Notice of Indian Entities Recognized and Eligible to Receive Services from the United States Bureau of Indian Affairs, which is the official listing of all federally recognized tribes in the United States.
