

Lead Paint in Older Homes is the Primary Source of Lead Poisoning...

Some items imported from other countries contain dangerous amounts of lead.
Check this list and be sure not to use these products!

USE	REGION OF ORIGIN	ITEM
Cosmetics	Middle East, India, Pakistan and N. Africa East Asia	Kohl, Surma, Al Kohl, impure Henna products Sindoor
Foods and Spices	Middle East Mexico	Lozeena Grasshoppers (Chapulines), Many Kinds of Candy (especially tamarind candy and candy with chili powder), Many Items Containing Chili Powder, Many Spices Imported from Mexico
Medicines/Remedies	Russia, Eastern Europe India Mexico and Central and South American Tibet and India India and other Countries in Asia China Vietnam, Laos (Hmong) Cambodia Saudi Arabia and other Middle Eastern Countries Central American and Mexico	Swanuri Marili, Kharchossuneli Kozhambu Azarcon, Alarcon, Coral, Luiga, Maria Luisa, Rueda, Litargiro Greta, Albayalde Ayurvedic Medicine, Tibetan Herbal Vitamins, Kushta Ghasard, Surma, Bali goli, Kandou, Deshi Dewa Jin Bu Huan, Po Ying Tan, Bo-Baw-Sen, Litarge, Cordyceps, Hai Ge Fen Pay-Loo-Ah (also called pejlum or PeLua) Koo Sar, Koo So Bint Dahab, Santrinj, Bokhoor, Al Murrah, Farouk, Santrinj, Traditional Saudi Medicine, Bint Al Dahab Glazed Ceramic Dishes
Cookware	China, India and other developing countries	Children's Jewelry and Toys, especially those with a dull metallic finish

...But there are other ways children can be lead poisoned.