I. Settlement Agreements, Civil Money Penalties, Withdrawal of FHA Approval, Suspensions, Probations, Reinstatement and Reprimand

1. AAA Worldwide Financial Company, Addison, TX [Docket No. 07–7032–MR]

Action: Settlement Agreement signed March 4, 2009. Without admitting liability or fault, AAA Worldwide Financial Company (AAA) agreed to: Pay HUD $115,000; buy-down two HUD/FHA-insured mortgages totaling $19,082; indemnify HUD/FHA for losses up to $20,144 on three loans; and indemnify HUD/FHA for any losses which have been or may be incurred on five other loans, if they were in default, or go into default from the endorsement date of each loan, through and up to five years from the effective date of the settlement agreement.

Cause: The Board took this action based on the following violations of HUD/FHA requirements in which AAA: Failed to implement a Quality Control Plan in compliance with HUD/FHA requirements; failed to separate Up-Front Mortgage Insurance Premium (UFMIP) funds from operating funds, and failed to remit UFMIP to HUD/FHA within ten calendar days of the later of closing or disbursement; failed to submit loans for endorsement in a timely manner and falsely certified that loans were current when submitted for endorsement; failed to ensure that the maximum mortgage amount was properly calculated resulting in over-insured mortgages; failed to properly verify the source of funds for the earnest money deposits, gift funds and/or adequacy of funds for the cash requirements; failed to ensure Construction-Permanent Mortgage Program requirements were met; and allowed non-employees to originate and process HUD/FHA loans.

2. Academy Mortgage, LLC, Catonsville, MD [Docket No. 07–7039–MR]

Action: Settlement Agreement signed March 12, 2009. Without admitting liability or fault, Academy Mortgage, LLC (Academy) agreed to pay HUD a civil money penalty in the amount of $18,500.

Cause: The Board took this action based on the following violations of HUD/FHA requirements in which Academy: Permitted non-approved brokers to originate Home Equity Conversion Mortgage (HECM) loans in violation of HUD/FHA requirements; and failed to comply with HUD/FHA housing counseling referral requirements during the origination of HECM loans.

Action: Settlement Agreement signed August 20, 2008. Without admitting liability or fault, Birmingham Bancorp Mortgage Corporation (Birmingham) agreed to pay HUD $3,000 in administrative payment.

Cause: The Board took this action based on the following violation of HUD/FHA requirements in which Birmingham: Failed to verify the borrower’s income from child support by providing a copy of the mortgagee’s divorce decree and evidence of her receipt of payment of child support for the most recent twelve-month period.

4. BSM Financial, LP, dba Banksource Mortgage, Allen, TX [Docket No. 05–5047–MR]

Action: In a letter dated January 16, 2009, the Board permanently withdrew BSM Financial, LP’s (BSM), HUD/FHA approval.

Cause: The Board took this action because BSM breached the settlement agreement entered into with the Department on October 4, 2006, by failing to remit its first installment payment.

Action: Settlement Agreement signed December 14, 2007. The Board reinstated Colban Funding, Inc.’s (Colban) HUD/FHA approval (the Board terminated Colban’s HUD/FHA approval on October 18, 2005). Colban agreed to pay HUD a civil money penalty in the amount of $15,000; and to indemnify HUD/FHA for its loss on one HUD/FHA-insured loan in the amount of $54,900.

Cause: The Board took this action based on the following violations of HUD/FHA requirements in which Colban: Failed to identify an approved loan correspondent’s participation in one loan; used verification documents faxed from a third party; failed to analyze a prior sale adequately; failed to include installment debts that were nearing payment in full; failed to verify the source of a downpayment adequately; and failed to reconcile inaccuracies between HUD–1 Settlement Statement loan closing in nine cases.

Action: Settlement Agreement signed January 23, 2008. Without admitting liability or fault, Colony Mortgage Corporation (Colony) agreed to resolve the Board matter by: Paying HUD $214,000, consisting of an administrative payment in the amount of $12,000 and reimbursement of losses to HUD in the amount of $202,000 on five HUD/FHA-insured loans.

Cause: The Board took this action based on the following violations of HUD/FHA requirements in which Colony: Failed to ensure the borrowers met the minimum credit requirements and/or their credit was properly verified; and failed to verify income and/or stability of income properly.

Action: In a letter dated January 9, 2009, the Board withdrew Curry
Mortgage Connection, LLC’s, (Curry), HUD/FHA approval for one year.

Cause: The Board took this action based on the following violations of HUD/FHA requirements in which Curry: Failed to submit the Executed Title II Yearly Verification Report; and failed to submit an acceptable audited financial statement(s) and supplementary reports through the Lender Assessment Sub-system (LASS).

8. Epix Funding Group, Inc., Brandon, FL [Docket No. 08–8031–MR]

Action: Settlement Agreement signed January 12, 2009. Epix Funding Group, Inc., (Epix) agreed to pay HUD a civil money penalty in the amount of $3,500. The Board also put Epix on six months probation.

Cause: The Board took this action based on the following violations of HUD/FHA requirements in which Epix: Used false and misleading advertisements on its corporate Webpage when it inappropriately displayed the official HUD seal, the FHA acronym, and advertised for the recruitment and establishment of prohibited branch arrangements.

Action: In a letter dated October 8, 2008, the Board suspended Fidelity Home Mortgage Corporation’s (Fidelity) HUD/FHA approval, pending further action by the Board.

Action: In a letter dated January 15, 2009, the Board suspended Prime Financial Group, Inc.’s (Prime) HUD/FHA approval, pending further action by the Board.

Cause: The Board took this action based on the following violation of HUD/FHA requirements in which Prime: Breached the settlement agreement entered into with the Department on November 21, 2008, by failing to remit its first installment payment.

Action: Settlement Agreement signed May 15, 2008. Without admitting liability or fault, R&G Mortgage Corporation (R&G) agreed to pay HUD a civil money penalty in the amount of $10,000. R&G also agreed to submit its audited financial statements for fiscal years 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2008 according to the extended schedule outlined in the settlement agreement, and if R&G fails to submit to HUD/FHA any audited financial statement according to the schedule, R&G agreed to pay the Department $2,000 per month, or portion of a month, per audited financial statement until the statement is filed. Further, R&G agreed to submit a management certification of its financial condition for fiscal years 2007 and 2008 by the dates stated in the settlement agreement.

Cause: The Board took this action based on the following violation of HUD/FHA requirements in which US Bank: Failed to comply with requirements regarding assignment of the mortgage.

Action: Settlement Agreement signed August 24, 2008. Without admitting liability or fault, Vega Financial, Inc. (Vega) agreed to make an administrative payment to the HUD in amount of $10,500.

Cause: The Board took this action based on the following violations of HUD/FHA requirements in which Vega: Submitted false certification to HUD/FHA when it submitted its FHA loan correspondent application; and violated the eligibility requirement prohibiting mortgagees’ officers and principals from engaging in business practices that demonstrate irresponsibility when its president and sole owner failed to notify HUD’s Office of Lender Activities that HUD had brought two administrative proceedings against him.

27. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., Des Moines, IA [Docket No. 07–7014–MR]

Action: Settlement Agreement signed April 4, 2008. Without admitting liability or fault, Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (Wells Fargo) agreed to pay HUD an administrative payment in the amount of $13,000.

Cause: The Board took this action based on the following violation of HUD/FHA requirements in which Wells Fargo: Allowed a debarred person to participate in a HUD/FHA mortgage insurance program.

Action: Settlement Agreement signed August 24, 2008. Without admitting liability or fault, Westar Mortgage Corporation (Westar) agreed to: make a payment to HUD in the amount of $50,000; refund $28,790 in interim construction fees to borrowers, and provide proof to HUD that fees were refunded; and indemnify HUD for any losses which have been or may be incurred on one loan stated in the settlement agreement.

Cause: The Board took this action based on the following violations of HUD/FHA requirements in which Westar: Failed to implement a Quality Control Plan in compliance with HUD/FHA requirements and failed to perform quality control review in 41 early defaults; charged unallowable fees; failed to obtain new construction documents required for loan eligibility; failed to properly verify, document, and/or calculate income; and/or calculate income; failed to ensure the mortgagor met the minimum credit requirements; failed to reconcile discrepancies found in the appraisal documents used to determine loan eligibility; failed to meet the requirements for late endorsement; failed to ensure that the maximum mortgage amount was properly calculated resulting in over-insured mortgages; failed to ensure Construction-Permanent Mortgage Program requirements were met; and allowed documents used to verify credit and income to pass through the hands of interested third parties, and allowed a non-employee to originate a HUD/FHA insured loan.

29. WR Starkey Mortgage, LLC, Plano, TX [Docket No. 07–7015–MR]

Action: Settlement Agreement signed April 4, 2008. Without admitting liability or fault, WR Starkey Mortgage, LLC (WR Starkey) agreed to waive all insurance benefits or indemnify HUD for any losses that have been or may be incurred from or in relation to seven HUD/FHA-insured mortgages listed in the settlement agreement, including those that are in default or that go into default, for a period of five years from the endorsement date for each loan. The total amount of the indemnification as of the effective date was $229,404.75. WR Starkey also agreed to make an administrative payment to HUD in the amount of $144,431.

Cause: The Board took this action based on the following violations of HUD/FHA requirements in which WR Starkey: Understated proposed housing payments in qualifying borrowers for new construction loans; approved two borrowers who had delinquent federal debts; closed loans in excess of the maximum allowable amounts resulting in over-insured mortgages; failed to ensure that Construction-Permanent Mortgage Program requirements were met; and allowed documentation used in the processing and/or underwriting of loans to pass through, be handled, and/or transmitted by an interested third party to the transaction.
