Public Housing Agency Plans; Change in Plan Submission Dates

AGENCY: Office of the Assistant Secretary for Public and Indian Housing, HUD.

ACTION: Final rule; amendment.

SUMMARY: This final rule makes two amendments to HUD’s February 18, 1999 interim rule regarding public housing agency (PHA) plans. First, this final rule provides PHAs whose fiscal years begin on January 1, 2000, with additional time to submit their first PHA plans to HUD. This final rule also provides that, for purposes of first PHA plan submissions, a PHA will be considered to have submitted its PHA plans on the submission due date, regardless of whether the PHA submits its first plans before that date. This final rule does not address the public comments received on the February 18, 1999 interim rule. The comments will be addressed in a separate rulemaking that HUD is currently developing, and that HUD expects to publish within the next few weeks.

DATES: Effective Date: October 21, 1999.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. HUD’s February 18, 1999 Interim Rule

On February 18, 1999 (64 FR 8170), HUD published an interim rule to implement a new component of public housing and tenant-based assistance operations required by the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act of 1998 (Pub. L. 105–276, 112 Stat. 2461, approved October 21, 1998) (referred to as the “Public Housing Reform Act”)—the public housing agency plans. Through these plans—the 5-year Plan and the Annual Plan—a public housing agency (PHA) will advise HUD, its residents and members of the public of the PHA’s mission for serving the needs of low-income and very low-income families, and the PHA’s strategy for addressing those needs. The February 18, 1999 interim rule established the initial procedures and requirements for development, submission and implementation of the Plans. The February 18, 1999 interim rule also provided the dates for submission of the Plans. The interim rule became effective on March 22, 1999, and is codified at 24 CFR part 903 (entitled “Public Housing Agency Plans”).

II. This Rule

The purpose of this final rule is to make two amendments to the February 18, 1999 interim rule. The amendments are as follows:

1. Extended submission date for initial PHA Plans. Section 511 of the Public Housing Reform Act provides (in subsection (h)(1)) for the Secretary to establish the due date for initial submission of the PHA 5-year and Annual Plans. After initial submission of the PHA Plans, the statute sets the due date at not later than 75 days before the start of the PHA’s fiscal year. In accordance with this statutory authority, the February 18, 1999 interim rule established due dates for the initial submission of the PHA Plans.

The February 18, 1999 interim rule established a due date of “no later than 75 days before January 1, 2000” for the first 5-year Plan submission by PHAs whose fiscal years begin on January 1, 2000. PHAs whose fiscal years begin after that date are required to submit their first 5-year Plan “no later than 75 days before the commencement of their fiscal year.” (See § 903.3(a) of the February 18, 1999 interim rule).

The interim rule established a due date of October 15, 1999 for the first PHA Annual Plan submission by PHAs whose fiscal years begin on January 1, 2000. PHAs whose fiscal years begin after January 1, 2000 are required to submit their first Annual Plan no later than “75 days in advance of their fiscal year commencement date.” (See § 903.3(b) of the February 18, 1999 interim rule).

On July 30, 1999, HUD issued Public and Indian Housing (PIH) Notice 99-33, which announced the availability of an electronic template that PHAs must use to complete and submit the PHA Plans. The electronic template, which is generally presented in question and answer format, clarifies HUD’s expectations for PHA Plan submissions and will make these submissions easier to complete. The PIH notice also provides additional guidance for completing the PHA Plans.

This rule extends the due date for initial PHA Plan submissions by PHAs with fiscal years beginning on January 1, 2000. Specifically, the rule provides that these PHAs must submit their first PHA Plans to HUD by December 1, 1999. This extension is designed to permit these PHAs (who will be the first to submit PHA Plans) to benefit from the electronic template and additional guidance provided in PIH Notice 99-33.

2. Designation of December 1, 1999 as the PHA Plan submission date. The February 18, 1999 interim rule provides that “not later than 75 days after the date on which the PHA submits its plan” will be considered to be the submission due date. Accordingly, the 75-day period for HUD to provide written notice of its disapproval will not begin until the due date. For example, the initial Plan submission due date for PHAs whose fiscal year begins on January 1, 2000 is December 1, 1999. The 75-day HUD review period for these Plans will begin on December 1, 1999, regardless of whether the PHA has submitted its PHA Plans before December 1, 1999.

The designation of the due date as the submission due date for purposes of the 75-day period assures that there is a uniform time period in which HUD field offices are charged with reviewing the PHA Plan submissions, and that field offices will have been provided appropriate and uniform guidance prior to the review period.

III. HUD’s Upcoming Final Rule Regarding the PHA Plans

This rule does not address the public comments received on the February 18, 1999 interim rule. HUD is currently developing a separate rule that will finalize the policies and procedures contained in the February 18, 1999 interim rule, and that takes into consideration the public comments received on the interim rule. HUD expects to publish this final rule within the next few weeks.

IV. Justification for Issuance of Rule for Effect

In general, HUD publishes a rule for public comment before issuing a rule for effect, in accordance with its own regulations on rulemaking at 24 CFR part 10. Part 10, however, does provide for exceptions from that general rule where HUD finds good cause to omit advance notice and public participation. The good cause requirement is satisfied when the prior public procedure is “impracticable, unnecessary, or contrary to the public interest.” (24 CFR 10.1). HUD finds that good cause exists to publish this rule for effect without first soliciting public comment, in that prior public procedure is unnecessary. Public procedure is unnecessary because this rule simply makes two technical amendments to 24 CFR part 903 regarding the due dates for initial PHA Plan submissions. These amendments will provide PHAs whose fiscal years begin on January 1, 2000 with additional time to prepare their first PHA Plans. The amendments will also benefit HUD, PHAs, and the public by assuring that there is a uniform time period in which HUD field offices are charged with reviewing the PHA Plan submissions, and that field offices will have been provided appropriate and uniform guidance prior to the review period.

V. Findings and Certifications

Regulatory Flexibility Act

The Secretary, in accordance with the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 605(b)), has reviewed and approved this rule, and in so doing certifies that this rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. This rule only makes two technical amendments to 24 CFR part 903 regarding the due date for initial PHA Plan submissions by PHAs with fiscal years beginning on January 1, 2000.

Environmental Impact

This rule is exempt from the environmental review procedures under HUD regulations in 24 CFR part 50 that implement section 102(2)(C) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (42 U.S.C. 4332) because of the exemption under § 50.19(c)(1). This rule only makes a technical amendment to an existing regulation.
Executive Order 12612, Federalism

The General Counsel, as the Designated Official under section 6(a) of Executive Order 12612, Federalism, has determined that this rule will not have substantial direct effects on States or their political subdivisions, or the relationship between the Federal Government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government. No programmatic or policy changes will result from this rule that would affect the relationship between the Federal Government and State and local governments.

Approval and Promulgation of Air Quality Implementation Plans; Virginia; New Source Review in Nonattainment Areas

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: EPA is granting limited approval of a State Implementation Plan (SIP) revision submitted by the Commonwealth of Virginia to revise its new source review (NSR) regulations for nonattainment areas to bring them into conformance with the Clean Air Act (CAA) Amendments adopted in 1990, and to make other changes desired by the Commonwealth.
