Subject: Extension of Notice PIH 2008-10 (HA) - Requirement for Designation of Public Housing Projects

Purpose: This Notice extends Notice PIH 2008-10 (HA), which expired on January 31, 2008. The Notice reiterates the streamlined requirements for designating public housing projects for occupancy by elderly families only, disabled families only, or elderly and disabled families only.

Changes: No substantive changes were made to the Notice. An editorial change is made as follows:

Notice 2005-2 at X. E. stated “Where no renewal request is submitted, the designated project or portion of a project will convert to a mixed population development on the date of the expiration of the original approved plan.”

Reissuance of Notice 2008-10 (HA) changes the wording at X.E. of the original Notice 2005-2 to “When the approved Plan expires and no renewal request has been submitted, the designated project or portion a project will convert to its original status and become available for occupancy by the population group that was served prior the designation.”

Where to Submit Plans: New and amended designated housing plan (Plan) proposals must be accompanied by a signed request from the Executive Director, and may be submitted electronically to PIH.DesignatedHousing@hud.gov. Electronic submissions exceeding 15 megabytes must be sent as two separate emails. Plans may also be sent by registered mail to:
