

HUD Invests in California

HUD is the Department of Opportunity. True to its mission, HUD is working closely with state and local leaders across California to promote homeownership, support community development, and increase access to affordable housing, free from discrimination. Below are some examples of HUD at work in California.

Housing Highlights

Building Stronger Communities in the Century of Cities

Since 2010, HUD has invested $2 billion in the State through the Community Development Block Grant Program. CDBG supports a broad range of public improvements for places like community centers and parks.

Easing the Rental Crisis

HUD provides 508,683 California households with rental assistance. That assistance impacts 1,028,358 individuals who reside in those households.

Creating Sustainable Communities

HUD programs are designed to support next-generation sustainable housing and communities. Since 2010, HUD has helped produce 23,453 healthy and energy-efficient homes in California.

Ending Homelessness

On any given night in California, HUD helps to shelter 42,515 persons experiencing homelessness. HUD is currently providing permanent homes for 8,984 formerly homeless veterans and has helped house 11,819 homeless veterans since 2008.

Leveling the Playing Field

HUD is committed to ensuring that every American has the chance to pursue housing opportunities free from discrimination. Last year in California, HUD resolved 987 housing discrimination cases affecting 1,949 people.

Helping Families Secure Quality Housing

The Federal Housing Administration (FHA) insures the mortgages of 588,529 California homeowners, helping drive a statewide homeownership rate of 54.3 percent.
