Introduction and Overview of MTW

PURPOSE OF MTW

- Offers Public Housing Authorities (PHAs) the opportunity to design and test innovative, locally-designed housing and self-sufficiency strategies for low-income families

- Gives Public Housing Agencies and HUD flexibility to design and test approaches for providing and administering housing assistance

- Allows exceptions to certain provisions of the Housing Act of 1937
Introduction and Overview of MTW

DEVELOPMENT OF THE MTW DEMONSTRATION

- Enacted April 26, 1996 under the Omnibus Consolidated Rescissions and Appropriations Act of 1996
  - Section 204 of the 1996 HUD Appropriations Act

- There are currently 35 PHAs in the MTW Demonstration

- Through this notice, HUD seeks to add four more PHAs to the MTW Demonstration
  - 1 slot remains from the FY2010 Appropriations Act and 3 slots are available from the FY2011 Full-Year Continuing Appropriations Act.
  - Citations to these statutes are available on page 1 of the notice.
THREE MTW STATUTORY OBJECTIVES

(1) Reduce cost and achieve greater cost effectiveness in federal expenditures

(2) Give incentives to families with children, where the head of household is working, is seeking work, or is preparing for work by participating in job training, educational programs or programs that assist people to obtain employment and become economically self-sufficient

(3) Increase housing choices for low-income families.
Eligibility

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS OVERVIEW

• Applicants under this notice must meet all eligibility requirements of:
  - Section 204 of the 1996 HUD Appropriations Act
  - Section 232 of the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2010
  - Additional HUD criteria cited in the notice

• Eligibility requirements must be met as of the date that the application is due.

• A worksheet is available in Attachment A of the notice (pages 15-17) for applicants to complete to ensure the requirements are met. A more interactive Microsoft Excel worksheet with the same information is included on the MTW website. An applicant may use either of these worksheets to determine its eligibility.

• HUD will determine that an application meets eligibility requirements if:

  (1) The “Threshold Requirements” are met (listed on pages 4-5 of the notice);

  (2) The application seeks to test two HUD priority policy initiatives (as described on pages 5-6 of the notice); AND

• Applications are due 5:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on Wednesday, June 27, 2012

• Submit applications electronically as converted PDFs or as Microsoft Word documents (1997 version or higher) to: Dominique Blom; Deputy Assistant Secretary for Public Housing Investments; e-mail: mtw-info@hud.gov

• HUD will confirm all applications received upon receipt
After eliminating PHAs that fail to meet the threshold criteria described in Section 3 of the Notice, HUD will evaluate, score and rank MTW applications based on the four criteria and associated point values set forth in Attachment C of the Notice.

HUD reserves the right to determine the number of applications selected in each of the policy priority areas in order to fulfill the strategic objectives of the MTW demonstration.

HUD will notify all applicants of the results of the selection process.

Applicants not selected may request a debriefing related to its application.

Selected agencies will enter into a Standard MTW Agreement with HUD, outlining the terms of participation, flexibilities, funding arrangements, etc., and will receive comments on the proposed MTW Plan so that it may be approved by HUD. Selected agencies may not implement any MTW activities until the Standard MTW Agreement is executed and the MTW Plan is approved.
