Adjustable Rate Mortgage Notification Requirements and Look-Back Period for FHA-Insured Single Family Mortgages Proposed Rule Published in Federal Register

FHA’s Office of Single Family Housing published a Proposed Rule in the Federal Register with two revisions to FHA’s regulations governing its Single Family Adjustable Rate Mortgage (ARM) program which align FHA interest rate adjustment and disclosure requirements with the regulations implementing the Truth in Lending Act (TILA), as recently revised by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB). Specifically, FHA seeks comment on the proposed standards related to (1) the interest rate adjustment period, known as the “look-back” period, and (2) disclosure and notification requirements. A copy of this Proposed Rule, Docket No. FR-5744-P-01, Federal Housing Administration (FHA): Adjustable Rate Mortgage Notification Requirements and Look-Back Period for FHA-Insured Single Family Mortgages, is posted in the Federal Register at http://www.gpo.gov/fdsys/pkg/FR-2014-05-08/pdf/2014-10572.pdf. The public is invited to submit comments for 30 days from the date of publication, May 8, 2014. Public comments will be accepted through www.regulations.gov.
