HECM Mortgagee Letter Announces New Principal Limit Factors

As is done periodically, HUD re-evaluated the entire PLF Table for HECM loans. The subsequent revisions announced with today’s Mortgagee Letter considered the need for PLFs for non-borrowing spouses below the age of 62 and a prudent re-balancing of PLFs to properly manage risk.

Mortgagee Letter 2014-12 more fully describes circumstances under which mortgagees ensure that mortgagors are given the information they need to make informed choices.

Overall, these HECM policy changes support FHA’s mission to expand sustainable mortgage financing options for seniors and create a sustainable HECM program into the future.

On July 2, 2014, FHA will host a conference call for stakeholders. The call will address the Mortgagee Letter published today, as well as Mortgagee Letters 2014-11, “HECM Fixed Interest Rate Product Changes”, and 2014-10, “Prohibition on Misleading Program Descriptions” announced on June 18, 2014. Call details are included at the end of this FHA Single Family Housing News e-mail.

Additional Information

The new PLFs are effective for FHA case numbers assigned on or after August 4, 2014. Mortgagees must permit prospective borrowers, who have not yet closed on their mortgages but have FHA case numbers assigned prior to the effective date of Mortgagee Letter 2014-07, to elect to use the PLFs announced in this ML as long as the new case number is assigned on or after August 4, 2014, and conditions detailed in the Mortgagee Letter are met.

The new PLF Tables are posted on HUD.gov at www.hud.gov/offices/hsg/sfh/hecm/hecmhomelenders.cfm. Please note that FHA’s HECM Calculation Software will be updated on or before August 4, 2014.
