Webinar Tips:

In your attendee control panel, be sure to choose the audio mode you intend to use (telephone or VoIP).

If you find you are having a sound quality issue, hang up and dial back in. Sometimes these problems clear themselves up when the bad connection is terminated.

If you can't hear other callers:

- Telephone users: Hang up and dial back in.
- VoIP users: Test your speakers setup. Click Audio Setup in the Audio Pane to select the correct device.
- Mac users: Click the speaker icon in the Audio Pane to select the correct device.

Check the volume setting in audio setup. Click Speakers Setup and then click Play Sound. Adjust the slider bar to the desired volume.

Community Building and Neighborhood Revitalization

- BRIDGE Housing, in partnership with the City and County of San Francisco through the Mayor's Office of Housing and the San Francisco Housing Authority, is a Choice Neighborhoods planning grantee
- Improvements across a range of neighborhood assets, including social assets that establish well functioning social interactions.
 - Public safety
 - Community engagement
- Involves and is driven by the community, including residents, business and civic organizations, and local community members.
 - How do you ensure that these groups are major players in the planning process?
 - How will the neighborhood transformation plan be based on their input?

 - Build a strong community.

Rebuild Potrero – Development Concept

What is Community Building?

Submit your thoughts in the question box on the GoToWebinar menu bar on the side of your screen

Some of the responses from participants included:

- Bringing people together (residents, business owners etc.) to find a common purpose
- Building capacity of residents
- Building relationships between neighbors
- Interconnection of people when they find similarities with one another
- Creating a sense of shared place with other residents
- Creating and sustaining connections
- Encouraging resident involvement in decision-making

What is Community Building?

- The active participation of residents in the process of strengthening community networks, programs and institutions.¹
- Unlike traditional programs and services, which direct interventions to the individual, community building is an engagement process for building social capital and the community's investment in its own future.²

Traditional Community Building Strategies

- Build social networks
- Engage residents in planning and vision setting
- Leverage community capacity to solve collective problems
- Collaborate with systems and organizations to improve social and community outcomes

Community Building in Potrero

Goal: To increase the capacity of residents to improve their quality of life and effect positive change in their community

What is Trauma?

Submit your thoughts in the question box on the GoToWebinar menu bar on the side of your screen

Some of the responses from participants included:

- An unpleasant experience
- Life events that alter attitudes
- Daily random acts of violence
- Anything that threatens or impedes with healthy development
- Disruption/dysfunction of regular systems
- Chronic stress
- Unhealthy conditions or experiences that negatively effect the well being of the community
- Lack of trust with political leaders
- Living in constant fear

What is Trauma?

Trauma is a set of normal human responses to stressful and threatening experiences.¹

Trauma in Potrero

- Violence and Lack of Safety = Stress
- Coping with Stress and Violence
 - High rates of anxiety, stress, and PTSD
 - Isolation => mistrust and depression
 - High-risk behaviors
 - Substance use
 - Needs and stress eclipse capacity to engage in nurturing family activities
- Lack of Community Connections
 - Mistrust and lack of social cohesion
 - Culture of apathy and depression
 - Programs and services are uncoordinated, low quality and temporary

How Does Trauma Challenge Community Building?

Submit your thoughts in the question box on the GoToWebinar menu bar on the side of your screen

Some of the responses from participants included:

- Forces a focus on 'me' instead of 'we'
- Creates unhealthy norms
- Encourages a lack of involvement
- Creates fear and distrust
- Most traumatized people tend to withdrawal and are less likely to become actively engaged in a community building process
- Reduces expectations for change in a community, no longer believe it can change
- Increases feelings of hopelessness

Trauma Challenges to Community Building

- Disempowerment and lack of a sense of community ownership
- High level of personal needs
- Depth and breadth of community needs

Traditional Community Building

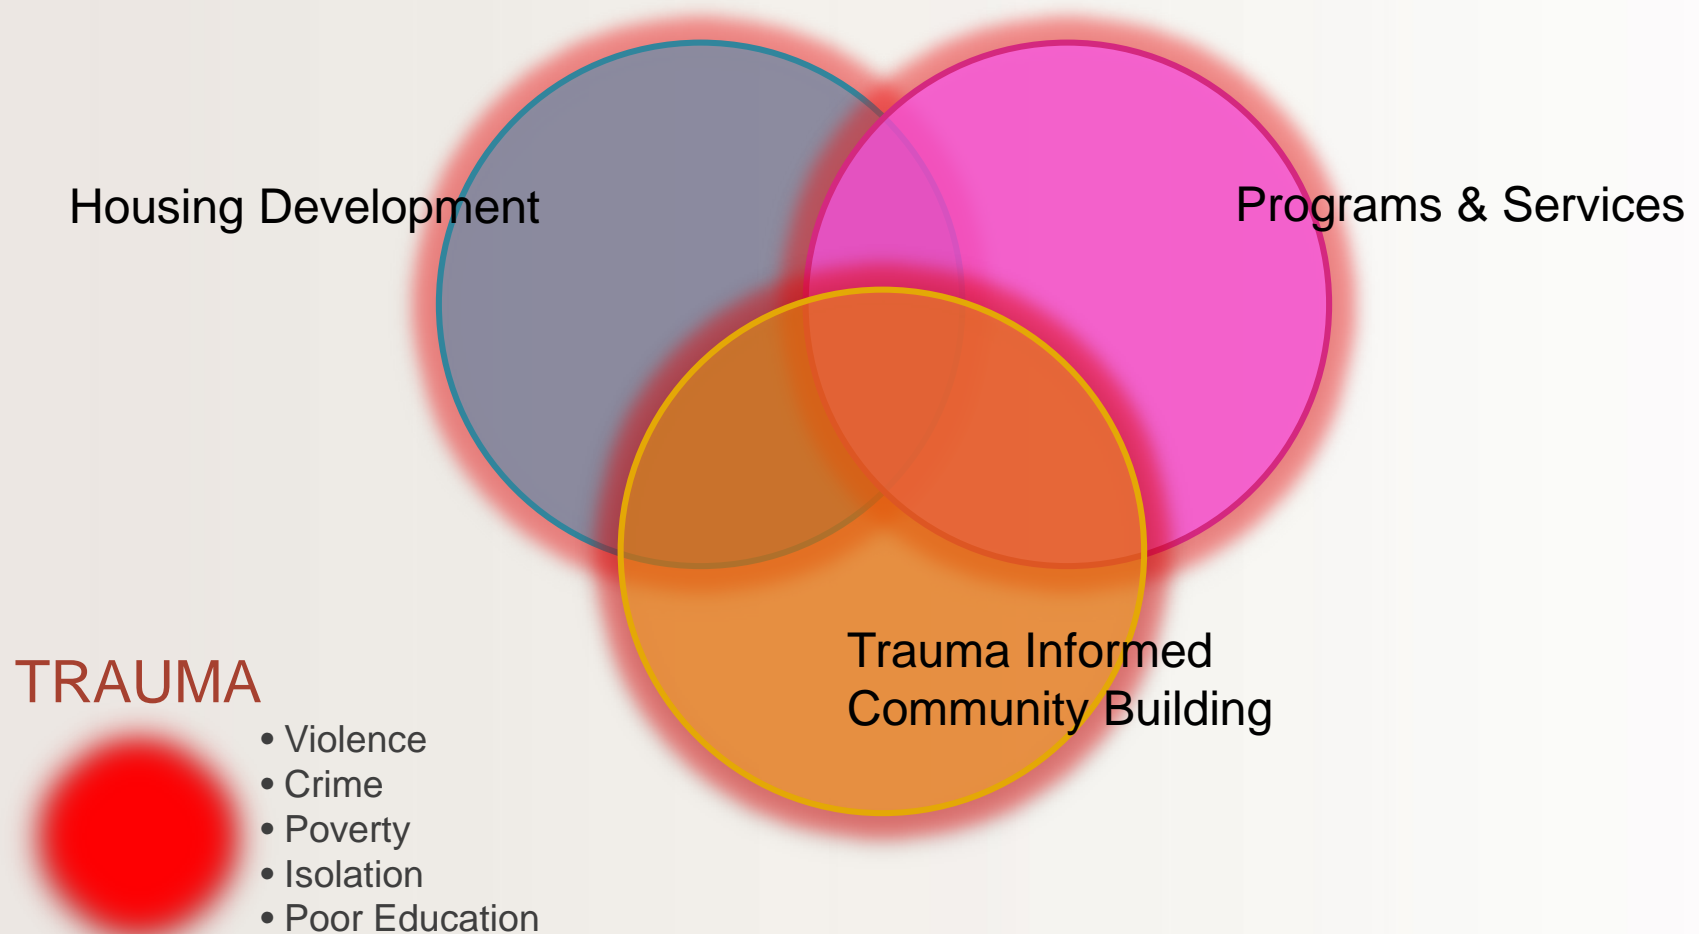

Traditional Community Building

Trauma Informed Community Building

What is a Trauma Informed Approach?

“Trauma-informed organizations, programs, and services are based on an understanding of the vulnerabilities or triggers of trauma survivors that traditional service delivery approaches may exacerbate, so that these services and programs can be more supportive and avoid re-traumatization.” - SAMSHA

Key elements:

- (1) Realizing the prevalence of trauma;
- (2) Recognizing how trauma affects all individuals involved with the program, organization, or system, including its own workforce; and
- (3) Responding by putting this knowledge into practice.

Trauma Informed Community Building

TICB: Guiding Principles

- ✓ Do no harm: By being aware of past and current trauma we can avoid re-traumatizing individuals and the community.
- ✓ Acceptance: We accept people's circumstances and the community conditions, and set expectations accordingly.
- ✓ Community Empowerment: Self-determination encourages community investment and empowerment.
- ✓ Reflective process: The change process is intentional and responds to new developments and knowledge.
