

HUD will only refinance debt associated with construction projects that were completed more than 2 years prior to the anticipated delivery of an application. Debt associated with structures completed fewer than two years prior to submission of the application is not eligible to be refinanced.

Please also note that HUD will not refinance debt for "pick-up projects", i.e. where construction is currently underway.